RUSSIAN census inspectors have discovered a new religious sect—Russia has dozens of queer ones. The men and women spend their time in caves underground praying. How they could imagine that the good Lord who gives sunshine and green fields wants us to go under ground, the Lord knows. Religion has often developed such strange notions. Early Christians gathered in the catacombs fearful of eing murdered in the sunlight. Their successors starved themselves in the desert, even believed that they could improve their souls' chances by going unwashed and covered with vermin. Strange notion for one made in God's image.

"LOOKS like war with Mexico," Washington correspondents say, who ought to know and probably do not. This nation is much annoyed with President Calles of Mexico because he helps Sacasa, Nicaragua Liberal, trying to be president.

That is puzzling, for after all Mexico is an independent nation, not a dominion, and should have as good a right to take sides with Sacasa as we to take sides with Diaz.

In this interesting situation, many strings are pulled in this and other countries that the dear public doesn't see.

NEW YORK puts two cents tax on each gallon of gasoline to improve roads, California and other states have the same tax, a wise one. Every dollar the automobile owner thus pays, he gets back more than double, saving on tire and increased mileage per gallon. A rough road is the really heavy tax on motors, although some don't know it.

STATISTICS for the past year show that the board of trade in Chicago sold in 12 months 34,000,000,000 bushels of grain. In one month more than 3,000,000,000 bushels of wheat were "sold." It interests farmers to see brokers selling in a month 10 times as much wheat as the United States can grow in a year. But that's business, grain is only farming.

CALL ON LEGISLATURE TO SUBMIT ISSUE OF VOTING MACHINE USE

Members of Special Board Suggest Selection of Four State Officials and Appointment of Others.

FOUR-YEAR TERM IS RECOMMENDED

Report is Forwarded to General Assembly Members by Judge J. C. Hanley, Committee Secretary.

Adoption of a short ballot in the election of all state officials is advocated by the special election committee of which Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley is a member, in recommendations which were filed with the elections committee of the state legislature at Columbus today.

Three Recommendations.

The committee, which has been working on the recodification of the election laws for more than a year, urges that the assembly take steps at this session to submit three constitutional amendments to the electors. These proposed changes are:

First—For approval of a short ballot which would provide for the election of four state officials—the governor and three others to be designated by the legislature. The governor would be empowered to appoint all other officials.

Second—That all state officials be elected for terms of four instead of two years.

Third—That the use of voting machines in the state be legalized.

Proposed Changes.

The proposed new draft of the state election laws also provides for the following important changes:

The use of one ballot, upon which all candidates for office including the judiciary, and all questions submitted to the electorate, will appear.

dential electors from the ballot and

Elimination of the names of presi- the use of the names of the candidates for president and vice-president substituted.

Reduction in the number of election precincts with 150 voters or less from four judges and two clerks to two judges and two clerks.

Elimination of the printing of the sheriff's election proclamation and printed lists of electors in each precinct.

Increase in the number of voters required for the formation of a new precinct from 200 to 250 voters.

Biennial registration instead of annual registration in all registration

FACES DAMAGE ACTION AFTER FINDING SONS

[illegible] Parents of Ed- [illegible] CATION

ONE BOY HELD

Court Fight Climax of Mrs. Mary McCoy's Long Search.

Mrs. Mary McCoy, Detroit, Mich., who came to Lisbon last week to join her two sons, after a 17-year search, today faces a suit for $3,000, filed against her by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruhl, of Elkrun township, for the maintenance, support and education of her son, Edward, who has resided with the Ruhl family for about 16 years.

At a hearing before Judge Charles M. Moore in common pleas court No 2 at Lisbon, Saturday, upon habeas corpus proceedings brought by Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl, the youth was permitted to choose between the Ruhl family and his mother. The boy immediately chose his mother. Mrs. McCoy was served with notification of the damage suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl as she was leaving the court house after the hearing. Her divorced husband, Edward Ridgely, of Broadway, East Liverpool, and father of the boy, is a party defendant in the action.

The boy was taken from the Fairmount Children's home at Alliance by Harry and Ellen Ruhl on March 11, 1911, when he was but two years of age. The Ruhls entered into a contract with officials at the home to clothe and educate the youth and not until his mother appeared in Lisbon last week was he aware that Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl were not his real parents.

Russell Sitler, 19, who is also a son of Mrs. McCoy, is in the county jail awaiting transfer to the Mansfield reformatory where he will serve an indeterminate sentence upon a larceny charge to which he pleaded guilty about two weeks ago. Young Sitler has been in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sitler since he was taken from the Fairmont orphanage about 16 years ago. Mrs. McCoy claims that she spent hundreds of dollars in the search for her two sons, who were placed in the home by her husband while she was ill in a hospital.

HEALTH CHIEF WARNS AGAINST SCARLET FEVER SPREAD HERE

Between 25 and 30 Cases are Reported Quarantined.

HINTS ARE GIVEN

Dr. Edward Miskall Asks Co-operation of Parents.

Dr. Edward Miskall, city health commissioner and other health board officials today, took steps to check the spread of scarlet fever, which has been prevalent in East Liverpool for a week or 10 days. Between 25 and 30 cases of the disease are now under quarantine, according to health board records.

An appeal for co-operation on the part of the parents was made by the health commissioner. Parents are urged to keep their children away from those suffering from a sore throat, and should they develop an irritated throat keep them isolated from other children. Warning was also given again the dangers of mingling in public assemblies.

Quarantines which have been established will be maintained for 30 days.

"Scarlet fever is a dangerous communicable disease, of much more importance than smallpox in our state because of its greater mortality," says Dr. Miskall. "More than 300 persons die of scarlet fever in Ohio every year and this does not take into account the large number who die of a complication of scarlet fever such as kidney trouble and middle ear infections.

"More than 14,000 cases were reported in Ohio by physicians last year and it is probable that several hundred cases were unreported. Death, sickness, expense, interruption to school work and interference with business are the results of neglect to enforce measures for the prevention of scarlet fever.

"The disease is transmitted from one person to another by the secretions of the mouth, nose and discharging ear. The scales that come off late in the disease are not in themselves infectious but are apt to become so through contamination by the discharges from the nose and mouth.

U. S. Supreme Court Rules Senate May Call Bank Records

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.— The power of the senate to subpoena records and witnesses in official investigations was upheld by the supreme court today in a decision of far-reaching importance, which involved the constitutional powers of the legislative branch of the government.

The decision was rendered in the case of Mal S. Daugherty, brother of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, and is an outgrowth of the senate's famous investigation into the department of justice while the latter was its head.

Mal S. Daugherty, head of a bank at Washington Court House, Ohio, refused to give the senatorial investigators access to records of the bank, and also refused to answer questions put to him by the investigators, and in the court test that followed challenged the constitutional powers of the senate to compel him to do so.

300 Men and Women Will Hear U. S. Senator Copeland

Plans Completed for Chamber of Commerce Dinner Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Night.

Plans for the eleventh annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow evening at which Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York will speak, have been completed, with the reservation of 300 places for men and women guests.

Senator Copeland will arrive here tomorrow afternoon, and will proceed to the Travelers' hotel where he will remain until the start of the evening's activities.

Compelled to start on his return trip to Washington immediately after making his address, it will be imperative that the banquet be served promptly at 6 o'clock. He will go from here to Rochester, Pa., where he will board the "Red Arrow" flyer on the Pennsylvania railroad, arriving in the Capital City 9:45 on Wednesday morning.

Senator Copeland's subject will be "Problems of the Day." With the Nicaraguan-Mexican situation in an acute condition; the agricultural dilemma unsettled; fight over the seating of three senators-elect pending, and the tax question in a position that is not permanent, the nationally known physician, now given to legislating for the country, will have much to say that will be compelling and thought provoking.

Solos will be rendered by Attorney Blaine H. Cochran. The DeMar Miller orchestra will play.

The annual report of the Chamber will be distributed.

A squad of Boy Scouts will be on duty to care for the guests' wraps.

The dinner will be served by Caterer and Mrs. John Bailey of the Y. M. C. A. restaurant.

MANY MEASURES WILL BE DUMPED INTO LEGISLATIVE HOPPERS TONIGHT

State Representatives and Senators Will go to Work in Earnest This Week.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 17.—A large number of bills and resolutions are expected to be dumped into the legislative hoppers when the senate and house reconvenes here at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

After devoting the past two weeks largely to preliminary arrangements, including se[illegible]ons of standing committees, the legislators will go to work in earnest this week.

Important measures scheduled for introduction this week include bills embodying recommendations of the joint legislative committee on taxation and economy. Scores of bills, it was indicated, dealing with varied phases of state governmental activity, will be in the lot.

The senate rules committee, at a session Tuesday, is expected to decide whether it will recommend that the senate confirm Governor Vic Donahey's recent appointments, including members of the state industrial commission.

Joint sessions of the senate and house committees on finances and on taxation are contemplated with a view to speeding up legislative work. The finance committees report out appropriation measures and the taxation committee recommend bills providing for increased taxes, or decreases in revenues.

TWO DRY LAW CASES DISMISSED

Lorenzo Harmon and Bradley Burns who were arrested about two weeks ago upon affidavits signed by Chief of Police McDermott charged with selling intoxicating liquors, were dismissed by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley this morning upon recommendation of Solicitor Hoover.

Mike Davis, private sleuth, who is alleged to have purchased liquor from the two men, has disappeared, according to police. Both men pleaded not guilty and the police were without evidence to convict them.

Non-Support Case Settled.

Frank C. Wilson was released from custody today following a hearing before Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley upon charges of non-support filed by his wife, Mrs. Grace Wilson.

WARSHIP SAILS

Dispatches to London Report Situation as Grave.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Chinese mobs have attacked American and English churches and residences in Foochow, according to dispatches received here today.

The United States destroyer Pillsbury is reported to have left Shanghai for Foochow to protect Americans there.

Looting Is Reported.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church today received a cablegram from Bishop Brown in Foochow, stating that there had been looting in the city but there had been no attack upon the Methodist mission which is outside of the city limits.

Defend Shanghai Settlement.

Other dispatches from China report the situation there as grave, and the cabinet is meeting this afternoon to consider action.

A general consultation of the representatives of the powers at Shanghai has resulted in a decision to defend the settlement against a Cantonese attack and to permit no repetition of the Hankow incidents, the foreign office announced.

The British government is still disposed to support the Chinese Nationalists, while exerting all of its powers to protect foreign lives and property.

British Cruisers at Malta.

MALTA, Jan. 17.—The British cruisers Frobisher, Boyle, Delhi, Dragon, and Danae, have arrived here enroute to China and are taking on stores.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 17—Notwithstanding the improvement of the situation in the vicinity of Shanghai as a result of General Sun Chuan-Gang's victory over the Cantonese forces at Ningpo, the foreign authorities today continued their perparations to defend the foreign settlement against a possible attack by the Nationalists.

The international settlement today was completely ringed with barbed wire entanglements, and the French concession, which lies between the international settlement and the Chinese city, was shut in behind huge steel gates which blocked all streets.

A message from Hankow said the H. M. S. Woodlark arrived there today bringing foreign refugees from Changsha. The Woodlark was threatened with bombardment by the Nationalists' shore batteries, but the commander of the British gunboat wireless to Eugene Chen, Nationalist foreign minister, who ordered the military authorities not to molest the Woodlark.

A Chevrolet sedan, belonging to Robert Brown, 1642 Pennsylvania avenue, which was stolen while parked in front of the Tabernacle Church of Christ, Pennsylvania avenue, while Brown was attending services last night, was stripped and abandoned near the Township Line school in Madison township, police were advised today.

GEORGE YOUNG, 17, WHO IS RICHER TODAY BY $25,000, TELLS HOW HE WON 22-MILE CATALINA SWIM IN CHILLY WATERS

BY MILLER HOLLAND.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—Let George tell it.

George is the young man from Toronto, Canada, who was born away back in the year 1909 and who is richer today by some $25,000 for having negotiated 22 miles through the chilly waters of the Pacific ocean, from Avalon, Catalina island, to the mainland, to win the epic swim sponsored by William Wrigley.

George—young George—is the youth who made his way to California on a battered motorcycle, with his chum, Bill Hastings, to win the swimming classic from a field of the world's best swimmers.

And George is the young fellow who gave 25 pounds of flesh during the course of his watery trek.

All in all, George is quite a young man, and as such, worthy of being heard.

"I also sold everything of my own that I could in order to increase our capital.

"Hard luck rode with us on that one-lunged motorcycle. We were broke when we reached Chicago. We had bought the motorcycle with most of the money.

Wrigley Loaned Him $60.

"Broke in Chicago, we didn't know what to do. We decided to beard the lion in his own den. We went straight to Mr. Wrigley.

"We told Mr. Wrigley we were headed for California to try to win his money.

'You look like a couple of clean cut lads,' Mr. Wrigley told us, and he loaned us $60.

"From Chicago we went to Oklahoma. There we lost the motorcycle. We were flat on our feet, so we started to hoof it. From Oklahoma we walked all the way to California except for a couple of rides we picked up.

"Bill and I arrived in Los Angeles on December 3. We had less than 60 cents between us.

"I remembered Doc O'Bryne had come to Los Angeles. I remembered he had made swimming champions out of two of his girls.

"So we looked up Doc O'Byrne. He took me in hand and trained me. It was Doc who taught me how to do it."

"I just knew I'd do it," the lad confessed modestly. "I've been swimming since I was 3 years old up at my home in Toronto. And I've been swimming all my life in cold water in lake Ontario and other lakes up around home and Montreal. I guess it's the clean life I've lived and the constant thought of my mother that kept pushing me on.

"Bill Hastings, my chum, first heard about the channel swim last summer," Young continued. "He told me he thought I could make it and we decided to come to California and try it.

"I'd been doing quite a bit of swimming in Canada—swam 22 miles once—but I'd never done any competitive swimming.

"Well, Bill and I got and old motorcycle to make the trip. We had no money, but we managed to get some. Bill's mother financed us with $70 and my moth-

TROUBLED FOR YEARS WITH INDIGESTION

Mr. Allan Small, of Brooklyn N Y, writes:

"I have always lived in fear of heart trouble—my father, as well as my mother's sister, died from this dreaded affliction when I was a child. As it was on both sides of my family and I had often heard it was hereditary, I lived in dread and fear.

"As I have had at intervals severe abdominal pains, heart-burn and pressure on the heart, I felt there was no relief so I became reconciled to the horrible truth I was doomed, nothing could be done and must await my time to go as my father and mother's sister I never dreamed I might only have intestinal indigestion, and my trouble was sour and acid stomach, causing gas pressure on the heart. Thanks to a friend who suggested Carter's Little Liver Pills as a remedy for faulty intestinal elimination, I am now free from the dreaded fear and enjoy all around good health. Small pills, easy to take and relieve the bowels in a rational way, with pleasant after effects." For sale at all druggists.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

LONGWORTH'S CRUISER STAND MAY BE BID FOR PRESIDENCY

By CHARLES P. STEWART.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — Nick Longworth burned his boats when he joined the "big navy-ites" against President Coolidge a few days ago. For better or for worse, he's now a Republican candidate for president himself.

For a long time Republican aspirants have been squirming for a chance to announce themselves as such.

SPEAKER LONGWORTH

They all want to be pushing their pre-convention campaigns but none has the nerve to say a word for himself with President Coolidge, so far as anybody knows, still in a receptive frame of mind toward another term.

It remained for Speaker Longworth to hit on a plan for turning the presidential spotlight on himself without actually proclaiming his candidacy in plain terms. Or perhaps Mrs. Longworth, whom everybody considers about the shrewdest politician in Washington, hit on the plan.

Or perhaps it wasn't a plan at all, but the speaker lined up with the "big navy-ites" against the President simply because he's a "big navy" man.

At any rate, the position Nick took started everybody talking about him as a presidential possibility. Mighty few can be found who don't think he deliberately counted on this effect.

When the "big navy-ites" demanded money for three new cruisers and the president said they couldn't have it with his consent it became evident that any Republican who voted in opposition to the chief executive's wishes was going to make himself a candidate provided he was of sufficient political importance to be noticed under any circumstances.

Of course, the speaker of the house of representatives is of sufficient importance to attract attention, especially when he does anything unusual.

It's decidedly unusual for a speaker of the lower house of congress to vote counter to the expressed policy of a president and his own party.

In this instance it was interpreted as an intimation of Speaker Longworth's disagreement with the president, not only as to the three disputed cruisers, but also as to the president's whole economy program, for cruisers cost like sixty and that's just why the president objects to them except in blue-print form.

But the speaker didn't stop at voting against the president. He turned over his gavel to a substitute and made a pro-cruiser speech. This was rubbing it in.

If the "big navy" folk had won it would have been a great feather in Nick's cap.

The feather doesn't show to quite so much advantage in view of the fact that they lost. Still they lost by so narrow a margin that it's something of a feather anyway, though not quite of the first class.

The essential point is that the whole country has been saying ever since, "That obviously was Nick's bid for the Republican presidential nomination in 1928." Thus he has broadcast an announcement without actually announcing a thing.

It remains to be seen whether Nick's strategy will profit him or not.

He succeeded in doing what none of his rivals for President Coolidge's place in the White House has accomplished. Still, the president can't like it very well and presidents have ways of getting even for what they dislike.

Be that as it may, Nick is committed. He has asked, in effects, for the presidency and must take the consequences, whatever they may prove to be.

LEVY PROPOSED TO PAY TEACHERS'

An increase of 10 cents in the proposed district levy for teachers' salaries has been made in the bill being sponsored by the state department of education and George M. Ford, for the county unit plant. Under the original provisions of the proposed bill, the county would be authorized to lay a levy of 30 cents on the $100 for teachers' salaries and each district would have been authorized to lay a levy of 10 cents additional for salaries. However, protests were entered with the sponsors of the measure, who complained that 10 cents for the districts would be insufficient. Hence the proposed measure was amended making the district levy 20 cents. It will be introduced at this session of the legislature.

Cheap Labor to Give Vienna New Rank as Shipbuilding Center

VIENNA.—The first sea going vessel ever built in Austria has just been completed in Vienna. The ship is a freight ship built for a Bulgarian company for trade on the Black Sea. The vessel caused great interest in the city, thousands of people going down to the waterfront to watch it sail away to the faroff sea.

The company building the boat will seek contracts elsewhere. It hopes that the cheap labor costs will permit Austrians to bid successfully against foreign competition and to make Vienna a ship-building center.

Constipation! How to Keep Bowels Regular

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated men, women, children, and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even for those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

LONGWORTH'S CRUISER STAND MAY BE BID FOR PRESIDENCY

By CHARLES P. STEWART.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — Nick Longworth burned his boats when he joined the "big navy-ites" against President Coolidge a few days ago. For better or for worse, he's now a Republican candidate for president himself.

For a long time Republican aspirants have been squirming for a chance to announce themselves as such.

SPEAKER LONGWORTH

They all want to be pushing their pre-convention campaigns but none has the nerve to say a word for himself with President Coolidge, so far as anybody knows, still in a receptive frame of mind toward another term.

It remained for Speaker Longworth to hit on a plan for turning the presidential spotlight on himself without actually proclaiming his candidacy in plain terms. Or perhaps Mrs. Longworth, whom everybody considers about the shrewdest politician in Washington, hit on the plan.

Or perhaps it wasn't a plan at all, but the speaker lined up with the "big navy-ites" against the President simply because he's a "big navy" man.

At any rate, the position Nick took started everybody talking about him as a presidential possibility. Mighty few can be found who don't think he deligerately counted on this effect.

When the "big navy-ites" demanded money for three new cruisers and the president said they couldn't have it with his consent it became evident that any Republican who voted in opposition to the chief executive's wishes was going to make himself more or less provided he was of sufficient political importance to be noticed under any circumstances.

Of course, the speaker of the house of representatives is of sufficient importance to attract attention, especially when he does anything unusual.

It's decidedly unusual for a speaker of the lower house of congress to vote counter to the expressed policy of a president and his own party.

In this instance it was interpreted as an intimation of Speaker Longworth's disagreement with the president, not only as to the three disputed cruisers, but also as to the president's whole economy program. Cruisers cost like sixty and that's just why the president objects to them except in blue-print form.

But the speaker didn't stop at voting against the president. He turned over his gavel to a substitute and made a pro-cruiser speech. This was rubbing it in.

If the "big navy" folk had won it would have been a great feather in Nick's cap.

The feather doesn't show to quite so much advantage in view of the fact that they lost. Still they lost by so narrow a margin that it's something of a feather anyway, though not quite of the first class.

The essential point is that the whole country has been saying ever since, "That obviously was Nick's bid for the Republican presidential nomination in 1928." Thus he has broadcast an announcement without actually announcing a thing.

It remains to be seen whether Nick's strategy will profit him or not.

He succeeded in doing what none of his rivals for President Coolidge's place in the White House has accomplished. Still, the president can't like it very well and presidents have ways of getting even for what they dislike.

Be that as it may, Nick is committed. He has asked, in effects, for the presidency and must take the consequences, whatever they may prove to be.

TROUBLED FOR YEARS WITH INDIGESTION

Mr. Allan Small, of Brooklyn, N Y, writes:

"I have always lived in fear of heart trouble—my father, as well as my mother's sister, died from this dreaded affliction when I was a child. As it was on both sides of my family and I had often heard it was hereditary, I lived in dread and fear.

"As I have had at intervals severe abdominal pains, heart-burn and pressure on the heart, I felt there was no relief so I became reconciled to the horrible truth I was doomed, nothing could be done and must await my time to go as my father and mother's sister. I never dreamed I might only have intestinal indigestion, and my trouble was sour and acid stomach, causing gas pressure on the heart. Thanks to a friend who suggested Carter's Little Liver Pills as a remedy for faulty intestinal elimination, I am now free from the dreaded fear and enjoy all around good health. Small pills, easy to take and relieve the bowels in a rational way, with pleasant after effects." For sale at all druggists.

LEVY PROPOSED TO PAY TEACHERS'

An increase of 10 cents in the proposed district levy for teachers' salaries has been made in the bill being sponsored by the state department of education and George M. Ford, for the county unit plant. Under the original provisions of the proposed bill, the county would be authorized to lay a levy of 30 cents on the $100 for teachers' salaries and each district would have been authorized to lay a levy of 10 cents additional for salaries. However, protests were entered with the sponsors of the measure, who complained that 10 cents for the districts would be insufficient. Hence the proposed measure was amended making the district levy 20 cents. It will be introduced at this session of the legislature.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN.

We rushed along the jetty, making a last desperate effort as we reached the end. The gangway of the steamboat was being drawn aboard, and her paddles were beginning to churn the waters of the lake. Officials barred the way, motioning us to stop.

"Jump," shouted Claypole without hesitation, and I leaped desperately.

Even at that moment I could not help noting the horrified expression of the magnificent personage (I will not call him a sailor) who was stowing the gangway. We fell together at his feet, and the first thing I saw on rising was two yards of elaborate uniform, surmounted by a face entirely possessed by astonishment and reprobation.

I was first up, and while Claypole still solved, muttering dark things on the deck, I looked around and saw Signor Marce focussing his one eye on the steamer, his fat body quivering with rage as he stood on the end of the jetty.

Then the jetty was blotted out by a small crowd of officials who appeared as if by magic and demanded explanations.

"Shades of William Tell,' said Claypole, who had just scrambled to his feet. "Reckon we've impeded some what the operations of this naval Power."

We expalined that we had been rowing on the lake, and had been upset and were anxious to return to Geneva without loss of time in order to obtain dry clothes.

I think they assumed that we were slightly drunk, for they ceased to reprove us, and after purchasing two first-class tickets we entered the saloon which fortunately proved to be almost empty. A waiter, genially inquisitive, supplied us with hot grog, but insisted on covering the plush seats with a dirty tablecloth before he would allow us to sit down.

Sinking back on the seat opposite Claypole, I had time to realize that I was desperately tired. I was wet to the skin, and I ached all over. My apperance was certainly deplorable. The mirror behind Claypoles head showed me a countenance white and disordered, the hair matted and clinging to the forehead. I had neither overcoat nor hat, my collar was sodden and grimy, and my shoes were oozing water.

A hand was laid on my knee.

Claypole's condition was just as bad, if not worse than mine. He had spent the best part of twenty-four hours in a filthy cellar, and, in addition to the fact that his clothes were soiled and shabby and the seat of his trousers torn he had been very roughly handled and his wrists and ankles had been bruised and cut by the ropes with which he had been bound.

Mentally I was in an even worse condition. Indeed the warm saloon and under the influence of the grog I fell into a kind of stupor. The bewildering events of the last few hours coupled with the severe physical shocks to which I had been subjected had driven me, I think, into a condition of mind not far removed from that experienced by men in trenches after a long and severe bombardment. Sitting in that steamboat, the water swishing past the portholes, and the steady throbbing of the engines behind me, I am not ashamed to own that I felt for the moment utterly helpless and indifferent, my only emotion being an occasional fit of acute panic. The adventure, which had seemed exciting and fantastic at the time, now appeared to me to be a grim, sordid and desperately dangerous business, into which fate had thrust me wholly against my will and utterly unprepared. I was afraid, horribly afraid. The sinister, smiling, impassive face of the little Japanese, the grotesque and vile countenance, with its hideous cross eyes, of Baldassare Marce, the dim features of their aiders and abettors, moved before my mind's eye in a grisly saraband. I leaned back in my seat and shivered uncontrollably.

A hand was laid on my kene.

"Buck up, friend," I heard a voice say. "You're about played out, nad I'm not feeling peppy myself. But there's some kick in both of us."

I opened my eyes and saw Claypole's eager gaze fixed on my face. When I remembered all he had gone through in the last twenty-four hours my own misfortunes appeared a featherweight in comparison, yet he was obviously in no way prepared to give way. The little man was clean grit all through, and, as I looked at him, something of his confidence gradually began to suppress the forebodings to which I had yielded.

"Meanwhile," he continued, "it's time I handed you over some posies for that most convenient arrival of yours in Count Emlico's dugout. Cyrus P. Claypole would be lying full 'five fathom deep at this moment if you hadn't contrived to keep that pressing appointment."

"Claypole," I said, "no more about that, if you please. I've come into this by chance, but henceforth you can count on me to help you all I know. I don't say I should have chosen this sort of holiday with my eyes open; but now I'm in this business, I mean to see it through."

"That's the spirit," said Claypole. "Beware of entrance to a quarrel, as Shakespeare says, but when you do jump in just to give the other fellow hell."

He thereupon beckoned to the waiter, and ordered two more grogs, at the same time inquiring when the boat was due to arrive at Geneva. We were informed that it would touch at several points on the lake before finally entering harbor, but it would arrive in another twenty minutes.

"They'll be waiting for us," I said, "on the landing stage. What are we to do?"

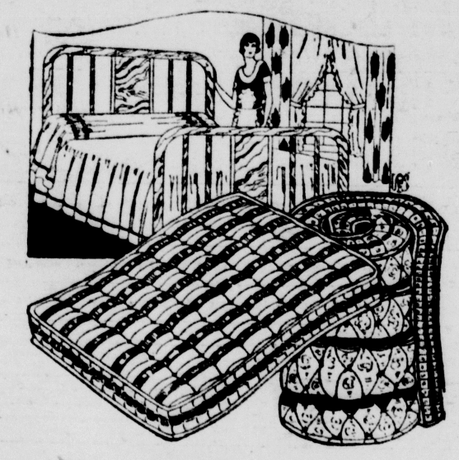

"We can fix that all right," returned Claypole cheerfully. "The respectable harbor of Geneva isnt at all the same proposition as a medieval oubliette. Helviea, complete with trident, will be watching over these homeless waifs, and those guys will have to beat it when I get talking to the Genevese police."

"Meantime," he continued, "just tell me how they got hold of you."

I spent the rest of the journey telling him the complete story of my adventures since arriving at Geneva.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN.

We rushed along the jetty, making a last desperate effort as we reached the end. The gangway of the steamboat was being drawn aboard, and her paddles were beginning to churn the waters of the lake. Officials barred the way, motioning us to stop.

"Jump," shouted Claypole without hesitation, and I leaped desperately.

Even at that moment I could not help noting the horrified expression of the magnificent personage (I will not call him a sailor) who was stowing the gangway. We fell together at his feet, and the first thing I saw on rising was two yards of elaborate uniform, surmounted by a face entirely possessed by astonishment and reprobation.

I was first up, and while Claypole still solved, muttering dark things on the deck, I looked around and saw Signor Marce focussing his one eye on the steamer, his fat body quivering with rage as he stood on the end of the jetty.

Then the jetty was blotted out by a small crowd of officials who appeared as if by magic and demanded explanations.

"Shades of William Tell,' said Claypole, who had just scrambled to his feet. "Reckon we've impeded some what the operations of this naval Power."

We expalined that we had been rowing on the lake, and had been upset and were anxious to return to Geneva without loss of time in order to obtain dry clothes.

I think they assumed that we were slightly drunk, for they ceased to reprove us, and after purchasing two first-class tickets we entered the saloon which fortunately proved to be almost empty. A waiter, genially inquisitive, supplied us with hot grog, but insisted on covering the plush seats with a dirty tablecloth before he would allow us to sit down.

Sinking back on the seat opposite Claypole, I had time to realize that I was desperately tired. I was wet to the skin, and I ached all over. My apperance was certainly deplorable. The mirror behind Claypoles head showed me a countenance white and disordered, the hair matted and clinging to the forehead. I had neither overcoat nor hat, my collar was sodden and grimy, and my shoes were oozing water.

Claypole's condition was just as bad, if not worse than mine. He had spent the best part of twenty-four hours in a filthy cellar, and, in addition to the fact that his clothes were soiled and shabby and the seat of his trousers torn he had been very roughly handled and his wrists and ankles had been bruised and cut by the ropes with which he had been bound.

Mentally I was in an even worse condition. Indeed the warm saloon and under the influence of the grog I fell into a kind of stupor. The bewildering events of the last few hours coupled with the severe physical shocks to which I had been subjected had driven me, I think, into a condition of mind not far removed from that experienced by men in trenches after a long and severe bombardment. Sitting in that steamboat, the water swishing past the portholes, and the steady throbbing of the engines behind me, I am not ashamed to own that I felt for the moment utterly helpless and indifferent, my only emotion being an occasional fit of acute panic. The adventure, which had seemed exciting and fantastic at the time, now appeared to me to be a grim, sordid and desperately dangerous business, into which fate had thrust me wholly against my will and utterly unprepared. I was afraid, horribly afraid. The sinister, smiling, impassive face of the little Japanese, the grotesque and vile countenance, with its hideous cross eyes, of Baldassare Marce, the dim features of their aiders and abettors, moved before my mind's eye in a grisly saraband. I leaned back in my seat and shivered uncontrollably.

A hand was laid on my kene.

"Buck up, friend," I heard a voice say. "You're about played out, nad I'm not feeling peppy myself. But there's some kick in both of us."

I opened my eyes and saw Claypole's eager gaze fixed on my face. When I remembered all he had gone through in the last twenty-four hours my own misfortunes appeared a featherweight in comparison, yet he was obviously in no way prepared to give way. The little man was clean grit all through, and, as I looked at him, something of his confidence gradually began to suppress the forebodings to which I had yielded.

"Meanwhile," he continued, "it's time I handed you over some posies for that most convenient arrival of yours in Count Emlico's dugout. Cyrus P. Claypole would be lying full 'five fathom deep at this moment if you hadn't contrived to keep that pressing appointment."

"Claypole," I said, "no more about that, if you please. I've come into this by chance, but henceforth you can count on me to help you all I know. I don't say I should have chosen this sort of holiday with my eyes open; but now I'm in this business, I mean to see it through."

Victory For Clean Living

George Younf, 17, Canadian, is the conqueror of the Catalina channel and winner of $25,000 in the 22-mile swim sponsored by William Wrigley, Jr.

Forced to ride to the coast in the side care of a second hand motorcycle for lack of funds in order to compete in the world's greatest long distance swim between the island and California mainland, he will return in a Pullman car to his Toronto home because of observance of common sense rules of living and a mother's faith in her boy.

Ninety-five other swimmers, including five women, several of whom had won honors in other great aquatic events, entered the competition, but failed. The 17-year-old boy, the darkest of dark horses, alone finished.

According to press reports of the event, which won him wealth and fame, young Young, whose name is legion in Canada, where he has shattered almost every swimming record, was all confidence from start to finish of the 22-mile contest. Not once did he falter and not once did he become discouraged. Never did he feel he was menaced by any other swimmer, not even Norman Ross, Chicago, holder of international swimming records.

And his victory proves that clean living pays in aquatic events as well as everything else worth while.

The Spy Scare

Europe is reported to be stirred by an espionage scare, the first international alarm of the sort since the end of the World War. As must be in such a state of affairs, rumors fly about faster than facts and in considerably greater numbers. Foreigners in every country are kept under police surveillance and even American residents in Great Britain must carry identity cards. Scotland Yard is said to know almost the hourly movements of every suspected foreigner in the country. Other nations are equally vigilant.

This is one of those foolish performances which ought to make self-respecting, civilized, friendly nations a little ashamed of themselves. There can't be so very many important military, chemical or even diplomatic secrets in these days that are worth much spying after. Specialists and experts in one country can usually hit upon inventions, discoveries and plans just as valuable as the ones so guarded by others. It would be much safer for all concerned to be a little more frank and generous about such matters instead of more secretive. The fears and suspicions engendered by secrecy and the resulting espionage scares are far more deadly than the secrets themselves.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that Great Britain and the United States have a gentleman's agreement to ask each other outright for any desired information, military or otherwise. It is a small step toward international frankness, but a good one.

The Coasting Cop

One of the northern cities was having its first real snow of the season. A woman doing her marketing heard the clang of the police emergency wagon as she approached a cross street which had a gentle slope. Seeing the wagon about to stop, she lingered a moment, as every curious and adventure-loving citizen does, to see what was going to happen. A raid? A bandit chase? A burglary call?

The wagon discharged one cop and sped on down the main highway with the others. This cop moved briskly to the curb, took two sawhorses and a rope and arranged them to block traffic from going down the street. From nowhere appeared a dozen kids with sleds. The littler ones grabbing him about the knees as they passed him, the older ones yelled cheery hellos. Other kids appeared with sleds, and the sport was on.

The woman moved on with her head somehow held a little higher, and her eyes wet.

It was like the sudden raising of the flag.

Hidden Treasure

A treasure of $50,000,000 is said to be lying at the bottom of the sea, in Greek waters, and the Greek government is inviting outsiders to come and fish for it on shares. The Greeks would be satisfied with one-third. It is most gold lost when an allied fleet, fighting for Greek independence, sunk the Turkish flagship in 1827.

All right, go and look for it if you like. Treasure-seeking is a legitimate sport, in any of the seven seas. But why not look for treasure nearer home?

There is treasure worth many times $50,000,000 lying unsought in the attics, walls, floors and cellars of American homes —money, jewelry, books, furniture and what not, mislaid or stored away and forgotten. In any house lived in for more than a dozen years, it's incredible what a systematic search will discover.

But not in a flat. It's useless hunting treasure in an apartment house.

Men see some hope for women after all, since they're giving up unbuckled galoshes.

What the cotton belt needs is a revival of Civil War dress styles.

My Favorite Stories

By IRVIN S. COBB

PAST TENSE BUT PRESENT MOOD.

There is a writer in New York who never does today what he can put off until tomorrow. All the same, among the editors, his output is always in demand. Some time ago, in a careless moment, he took on a contract to furnish a given number of humorous articles at stated intervals for publication in a popular periodical.

One day about noon-time two of us dropped in on him at his office. We found him humped up at his desk, his coat off, his sleeves rolled up, and his pen racing across the paper.

"Come on, old man," I said, "we want to take you out to lunch with us."

"Can't go to lunch," he said. "Can't quit the job. You know how I am—if I go out to lunch with you fellows I won't get back for two or three days. I'm going to send a boy to bring me in a cup of coffee and a sandwich.

"Can't you spare even half an hour to join us?" asked my companion.

"No, I can't. I tell you, I can't leave here until this job I'm working on now is done. There's a time limit on it and I'm under a solemn pledge to stick here until the thing is finished."

"A time limit, eh?" one of us said; "well, under your promise, what is the very latest possible date when you must deliver the manuscript?"

He glanced at the calender above his desk:

"A week ago last Tuesday," he said.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Diary of a modern Pepys: Up and glad to be at my desk again and with a swoop cleared away an accumulation of weeks, doubtless sacrificing papers I desire to keep and letters that should be answered. So in light spirits to breakfast with my mother-in-aiw, taking her two books.

Then to walk among the tenements of Avenue A. with Lisle Bell and in a pawn shop bartered for an odd key ring, albeit I have not carried a key in years. And a drunken man lurched against a lady with an apology and she said, "I excuse your drunkenness, but not your manners," as fine retort as ever I heard.

So home and wrote a magazine piece before dinner and with great ease, too, so heartening me I decided to scribble late into the night but after dinner could not fashion a line. So to bed.

It was at one of those gay balls starting at midnight and ending when many fall with heads tucked under their wings or something. In the midst of a dance a whistle blew and the orchestra stopped. Flash light photographers raised their hands and lifted flashes. At least thirty women screamed and about forty couples raced from the floor in a panic. They were in the wrong place with the wrong escorts. It is tres difficile to laugh off a photograph in a divorce court.

Something else about which to worry. Those young blades who keep pace with the latest cuts in dinner jacket lapels, the angle of hats and the wrist flair of gloves have a lot of useless dress shirts on hand. The three stud shirts were supplanted by those with one buttonhole a year ago and now the last word is two buttonholes close together.

A popular young actor who popped up from the East Side with slight schooling has this at the top of his letterheads: "I don't give a hang for a man that can spell a word only one way"—Mark Twain. And he follows Mark's advice.

And James Thornton's private stationery now reads: "Third year with the Volstead act."

In other days Jim Thornton was a consistent imbiber — the old type of talented, unreliable Thespian. He would work a few weeks and dally among the bright lights. His faithful wife Bonnie clung to him through the turbulent years and James and Bonnie Thornton made thousands laugh. After her passing he was inconsolable and drank deeper. Then suddenly he turned from the cup, and in his advancing age is making audiences laugh with the old time gusto.

It used to be an idea drink went with genius and stage stars often bragged of holding the curtain until their heads cleared and then giving amazing performances. It was said Nat Goodwin gave his finest presentations with a quart of chablis tucked under his belt. Beerbohm Tree was also reputed to be at his best three sheets in the wind—although this was an infrequent occurrence. Two celebrated female stars also had the reputation of indulging for their most difficult roles. Perhaps these stories are exaggerations. Anyway the foremost stars of the present day are largely teetotalers. Only one star—a woman—is an inebriate and her swan song has been sung. Every effort in the past few years has met with pathetic failure.

A musical comedy actress of promise not so long ago faced a mangerial ultimatum. She must take the pledge or face dismissal, despite her run of the play contract. She had been hiccuping too much in public. She asked for a week's lay off and went to an isolated Long Island village. She came back resolved to permanent sobriety and for four months has kept the pact. She has told friends that when consumed by the physical craving for liquor she dons walking togs and walks along strange streets until exhausted.

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Where Nature Will Be Natural.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—There is to be in at least one spot in the United States an example of nature undefiled or untrammeled in any fashion. An area of approximately seven square miles has just been set aside in the high Sierra country of Yosemite National Park, California, for this purpose. Here the flora and fauna will always be left in their primitive state and this spot will be a complete and perpetual reservation.

Although all national parks are created for the primary purpose of preserving for all time the natural features contained therein, including the flora and fauna, developments necessary for the use and enjoyment of the park by the traveling public are permitted.

In this area just set aside, however, domestic animals, camping, and fishing will be excluded. Special permission will be required for admittance to this reserve and this will be granted only for the purpose of scientific studies or in connection with the administration of the area. The wild animals and plants there will not be removed or interfered with in any way unless the natural balance is seriously disturbed by some invasion from the outside.

The main idea of setting aside this perpetual reserve is to furnish an opportunity for the study of plants, animals, and geologic and other natural features under primitive conditions. It is believed that it will be especially interesting to note the natural succession of events such as changes in animal and plant life. This reservation will furnish to future generations a sample of what might be found in other places if man had not interfered with the workings of nature.

This reservation is at the present time in an absolutely wild state and there is no roadway nor well-defined trail leading to it. Despite this fact it is not unduly difficult of access. Suggestion has been made that this era be protected by a strong wire fence, but this has been deemed impractical since the heavy winter snows would break down such a fence. During the summer months, or tourist season, however, special inspection will be given it by the ranger force of the park.

A Particularly Suitable Spot.

The spot is considered particularly suitable for such a protected reservation for several reasons. It is located on part of the crest of the Sierra Nevada range with picturesque alpine peaks and cirques to the north. There is a general southly exposure with splendid outlooks to Cathedral Range. The lower slopes are well forested with a too-uniform stand of lodge-pole pine, but if given absolute protection may swing back ultimately to other types of forest. There is a small amount of hemlock and along the upper limits of the forest is the usual fringe of white bark pine.

There are extensive meadows with a profusion of wild flowers, and the flora changes as stream banks are approached. There are small lakes and ponds bordered with bogs which make ideal habitats for species of plants and animals not found elsewhere. The upper slopes exhibit characteristic chaparral and the number of species of herbaceous flowering perennials becomes greater toward the summits where rich alpine flora is found. Before the creation of Yosemite National Park this area was overgrazed by sheep, but this is true of practically all of the high Sierra Nevadas.

Another thing which makes this area especially advantageous is the fact that there is little likelihood of its ever being demanded by commercial or other economic interests of the future. It does not appear that the march of progress will ever interfere with its remaining actually a complete and perpetual reservation.

The suggestion of setting aside such an area came from Dr. John C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institution of Washington. He put the idea before Stephen T. Mather, director of the National Parks of the United States, and when a meeting of the superintendents of the various national parks was held in Washington the matter was discussed. As a result this area of seven square miles of high Sierra country in Yosemite National Park was set aside.

While it is said that there is no exact precedent for such a project it has been approximated by some of the wild life reserves and certain wild flower preserves, and in the redwood districts. In each of these, however, the object is different.

Same Thing Done Abroad.

In Europe the idea is being carried out by several countries. The national parks of Sweden and of Switzerland are excellent examples of such complete reservations. While not so complete, a similar plan is being followed in Bavaria and in the forest of Fontainebleau, France. Czechoslovakia has established a reservation with similar objects. This abuts on one which is to be set aside by Poland. There appears to be an increasing interest in establishing reservations where nature may be studied in as unmodified a state as possible.

The people as a whole have been

According to press reports of the event, which won him wealth and fame, young Young, whose name is legion in Canada, where he has shattered almost every swimming record, was all confidence from start to finish of the 22-mile contest. Not once did he falter and not once did he become discouraged. Never did he feel he was menaced by any other swimmer, not even Norman Ross, Chicago, holder of international swimming records.

And his victory proves that clean living pays in aquatic events as well as everything else worth while.

The Spy Scare

Europe is reported to be stirred by an espionage scare, the first international alarm of the sort since the end of the World War. As must be in such a state of affairs, rumors fly about faster than facts and in considerably greater numbers. Foreigners in every country are kept under police surveillance and even American residents in Great Britain must carry identity cards. Scotland Yard is said to know almost the hourly movements of every suspected foreigner in the country. Other nations are equally vigilant.

This is one of those foolish performances which ought to make self-respecting, civilized, friendly nations a little ashamed of themselves. There can't be so very many important military, chemical or even diplomatic secrets in these days that are worth much spying after. Specialists and experts in one country can usually hit upon inventions, discoveries and plans just as valuable as the ones so guarded by others. It would be much safer for all concerned to be a little more frank and generous about such matters instead of more secretive. The fears and suspicions engendered by secrecy and the resulting espionage scares are far more deadly than the secrets themselves.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that Great Britain and the United States have a gentleman's agreement to ask each other outright for any desired information, military or otherwise. It is a small step toward international frankness, but a good one.

The Coasting Cop

One of the northern cities was having its first real snow of the season. A woman doing her marketing heard the clang of the police emergency wagon as she approached a cross street which had a gentle slope. Seeing the wagon about to stop, she lingered a moment, as every curious and adventure-loving citizen does, to see what was going to happen. A raid? A bandit chase? A burglary call?

The wagon discharged one cop and sped on down the main highway with the others. This cop moved briskly to the curb, took two sawhorses and a rope and arranged them to block traffic from going down the street. From nowhere appeared a dozen kids with sleds. The littler ones grabbing him about the knees as they passed him, the older ones yelled cheery hellos. Other kids appeared with sleds, and the sport was on.

The woman moved on with her head somehow held a little higher, and her eyes wet.

It was like the sudden raising of the flag.

Hidden Treasure

A treasure of $50,000,000 is said to be lying at the bottom of the sea, in Greek waters, and the Greek government is inviting outsiders to come and fish for it on shares. The Greeks would be satisfied with one-third. It is most gold lost when an allied fleet, fighting for Greek independence, sunk the Turkish flagship in 1827.

All right, go and look for it if you like. Treasure-seeking is a legitimate sport, in any of the seven seas. But why not look for treasure nearer home?

There is treasure worth many times $50,000,000 lying unsought in the attics, walls, floors and cellars of American homes —money, jewelry, books, furniture and what not, mislaid or stored away and forgotten. In any house lived in for more than a dozen years, it's incredible what a systematic search will discover.

But not in a flat. It's useless hunting treasure in an apartment house.

Men see some hope for women after all, since they're giving up unbuckled galoshes.

What the cotton belt needs is a revival of Civil War dress styles.

Mickey (Himself) McGuire— By Fontaine Fox

There are extensive meadows with a profusion of wild flowers, and the flora changes as stream banks are approached. There are small lakes and ponds bordered with bogs which make ideal habitats for species of plants and animals not found elsewhere. The upper slopes exhibit characteristic chaparral and the number of species of herbaceous flowering perennials becomes greater toward the summits where rich alpine flora is found. Before the creation of Yosemite National Park this area was overgrazed by sheep, but this is true of practically all of the high Sierra Nevadas.

Another thing which makes this area especially advantageous is the fact that there is little likelihood of its ever being demanded by commercial or other economic interests of the future. It does not appear that the march of progress will ever interfere with its remaining actually a complete and perpetual reservation.

The suggestion of setting aside such an area came from Dr. John C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institution of Washington. He put the idea before Stephen T. Mather, director of the National Parks of the United States, and when a meeting of the superintendents of the various national parks was held in Washington the matter was discussed. As a result this area of seven square miles of high Sierra country in Yosemite National Park was set aside.

While it is said that there is no exact precedent for such a project it has been approximated by some of the wild life reserves and certain wild flower preserves, and in the redwood districts. In each of these, however, the object is different.

Same Thing Done Abroad.

In Europe the idea is being carried out by several countries. The national parks of Sweden and of Switzerland are excellent examples of such complete reservations. While not so complete, a similar plan is being followed in Bavaria and in the forest of Fontainebleau, France. Czechoslovakia has established a reservation with similar objects. This abuts on one which is to be set aside by Poland. There appears to be an increasing interest in establishing reservations where nature may be studied in as unmodified a state as possible.

The people as a whole have been

PAST TENSE BUT PRESENT MOOD.

There is a writer in New York who never does today what he can put off until tomorrow. All the same, among the editors, his output is always in demand. Some time ago, in a careless moment, he took on a contract to furnish a given number of humorous articles at stated intervals for publication in a popular periodical.

One day about noon-time two of us dropped in on him at his office. We found him humped up at his desk, his coat off, his sleeves rolled up, and his pen racing across the paper.

"Come on, old man," I said, "we want to take you out to lunch with us."

"Can't go to lunch," he said. "Can't quit the job. You know how I am—if I go out to lunch with you fellows I won't get back for two or three days. I'm going to send a boy to bring me in a cup of coffee and a sandwich.

"Can't you spare even half an hour to join us?" asked my companion.

"No, I can't. I tell you, I can't leave here until this job I'm working on now is done. There's a time limit on it and I'm under a solemn pledge to stick here until the thing is finished."

"A time limit, eh?" one of us said; "well, under your promise, what is the very latest possible date when you must deliver the manuscript?"

He glanced at the calender above his desk:

"A week ago last Tuesday," he said.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Diary of a modern Pepys: Up and glad to be at my desk again and with a swoop cleared away an accumulation of weeks, doubtless sacrificing papers I desire to keep and letters that should be answered. So in light spirits to breakfast with my mother-in-alw, taking her two books.

Then to walk among the tenements of Avenue A. with Lisle Bell and in a pawn shop bartered for an odd key ring, albeit I have not carried a key in years. And a drunken man lurched against a lady with an apology and she said, "I excuse your drunkenness, but not your manners," as fine retort as ever I heard.

So home and wrote a magazine piece before dinner and with great ease, too, so heartening me I decided to scribble late into the night but after dinner could not fashion a line. So to bed.

It was at one of those gay balls starting at midnight and ending when many fall with heads tucked under their wings or something. In the midst of a dance a whistle blew and the orchestra stopped. Flash light photographers raised their hands and lifted flashes. At least thirty women screamed and about forty couples raced from the floor in a panic. They were in the wrong place with the wrong escorts. It is tres difficile to laugh off a photograph in a divorce court.

Something else about which to worry. Those young blades who keep pace with the latest cuts in dinner jacket lapels, the angle of hats and the wrist flair of gloves have a lot of useless dress shirts on hand. The three stud shirts were supplanted by those with one buttonhole a year ago and now the last word is two buttonholes close together.

A popular young actor who popped up from the East Side with slight schooling has this at the top of his letterheads: "I don't give a hang for a man that can spell a word only one way"—Mark Twain. And he follows Mark's advice.

And James Thornton's private stationery now reads: "Third year with the Volstead act."

In other days Jim Thornton was a consistent imbiber — the old type of talented, unreliable Thespian. He would work a few weeks and dally among the bright lights. His faithful wife Bonnie clung to him through the turbulent years and James and Bonnie Thornton made thousands laugh. After her passing he was inconsolable and drank deeper. Then suddenly he turned from the cup, and in his advancing age is making audiences laugh with the old time gusto.

It used to be an idea drink went with genius and stage stars often bragged of holding the curtain until their heads cleared and then giving amazing performances. It was said Nat Goodwin gave his finest presentations with a quart of chablis tucked under his belt. Beerbohm Tree was also reputed to be at his best three sheets in the wind—although this was an infrequent occurrence. Two celebrated female stars also had the reputation of indulging for their most difficult roles. Perhaps these stories are exaggerations. Anyway the foremost stars of the present day are largely teetotalers. Only one star—a woman—is an inebriate and her swan song has been sung. Every effort in the past few years has met with pathetic failure.

A musical comedy actress of promise not so long ago faced a mangerial ultimatum. She must take the pledge or face dismissal, despite her run of the play contract. She had been hiccuping too much in public. She asked for a week's lay off and went to an isolated Long Island village. She came back resolved to permanent sobriety and for four months has kept the pact. She has told friends that when consumed by the physical craving for liquor she dons walking togs and walks along strange streets until exhausted.

HASKIN'S LETTER
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Where Nature Will Be Natural.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—There is to be in at least one spot in the United States an example of nature undefiled or untrammeled in any fashion. An area of approximately seven square miles has just been set aside in the high Sierra country of Yosemite National Park, California, for this purpose. Here the flora and fauna will always be left in their primitive state and this spot will be a complete and perpetual reservation.

Although all national parks are created for the primary purpose of preserving for all time the natural features contained therein, including the flora and fauna, developments necessary for the use and enjoyment of the park by the traveling public are permitted.

In this area just set aside, however, domestic animals, camping, and fishing will be excluded. Special permission will be required for admittance to this reserve and this will be granted only for the purpose of scientific studies or in connection with the administration of the area. The wild animals and plants there will not be removed or interfered with in any way unless the natural balance is seriously disturbed by some invasion from the outside.

The main idea of setting aside this perpetual reserve is to furnish an opportunity for the study of plants, animals, and geologic and other natural features under primitive conditions. It is believed that it will be especially interesting to note the natural succession of events such as changes in animal and plant life. This reservation will furnish to future generations a sample of what might be found in other places if man had not interfered with the workings of nature.

This reservation is at the present time in an absolutely wild state and there is no roadway nor well-defined trail leading to it. Despite this fact it is not unduly difficult of access. Suggestion has been made that this era be protected by a strong wire fence, but this has been deemed impractical since the heavy winter snows would break down such a fence. During the summer months, or tourist season, however, special inspection will be given it by the ranger force of the park.

A Particularly Suitable Spot.

The spot is considered particularly suitable for such a protected reservation for several reasons. It is located on part of the crest of the Sierra Nevada range with picturesque alpine peaks and cirques to the north. There is a general southly exposure with splendid outlooks to Cathedral Range. The lower slopes are well forested with a too-uniform stand of lodge-pole pine, but if given absolute protection may swing back ultimately to other types of forest. There is a small amount of hemlock and along the upper limits of the forest is the usual fringe of white bark pine.

As one of the outstanding public men in France, Joseph Caillaux depends upon the power of oratory in advocating his ideas and in swaying his colleagues. To safeguard his voice is his constant aim. His favorite among cigarettes is Lucky Strikes, both for finer flavor and throat protection.

Lucky Strikes have become the favorites of men whose priceless voices thrill their audiences, as they have with the millions because, first, they afford greater enjoyment and second, they are certain not to irritate even the most sensitive throat.

The world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended, give them their richer flavor.

But in addition, a costly extra process—toasting for 45 minutes—develops the hidden flavors of the choicest tobaccos and at the same time removes all "bite" and harshness.

Smoke Lucky Strikes. They give added pleasure—you'll like them.

I have found your Lucky Strike Cigarettes very agreeable. They do not hurt my throat in the least and are very soothing to my voice.

L. Caillaux

When Caillaux Speaks, the World Listens

His clear voice is inspiring, his throat ever in perfect condition

As one of the outstanding public men in France, Joseph Caillaux depends upon the power of oratory in advocating his ideas and in swaying his colleagues. To safeguard his voice is his constant aim. His favorite among cigarettes is Lucky Strikes, both for finer flavor and throat protection.

Lucky Strikes have become the favorites of men whose priceless voices thrill their audiences, as they have with the millions because, first, they afford greater enjoyment and second, they are certain not to irritate even the most sensitive throat.

The world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended, give them their richer flavor.

But in addition, a costly extra process—toasting for 45 minutes—develops the hidden flavors of the choicest tobaccos and at the same time removes all "bite" and harshness.

Smoke Lucky Strikes. They give added pleasure—you'll like them.

Hickville's Comedy Four On Program at Ceramic

Vaudeville Singing Quartet Appear With Paramount Picture, "The Great Gatsby."

Hickville's Comedy Four, vaudeville's biggest singing quartet, will appear in "country capers" as the feature act in connection with the motion picture, "The Great Gatsby," at the Ceramic theatre tonight and Tuesday.

"The Great Gatsby," a Paramount production, is a brilliant social satire focused on the tragedy of a fascinating character, Jay Gatsby--soldier, mysterious gentleman and lover.

The picture starts with a beautiful love scene between Gatsby and Daisy Fay, the Louisville belle. War spirit is running high and Daisy promises to wait for her soldier hero's return.

A resplendent fete at Gatsby's home is impressive in sweep, daring in action and a riot of life and color. The bathing pool with its silk-clad swimmers adds to the gay revelry.

While Daisy is having tea with Gatsby her husband is meeting Myrtle Wilson, the garage-keeper's wife, at the Harlem apartment of Bert, a street car conductor. An altercation arises, indicating that their liason is due for a break.

There's a tense scene when the two men, each representing a dominating force in Daisy's life, come to grips. Gatsby realizes that the path he has followed to attain hi heart's desire lacks a stable foundation. Lois Wilson does the best acting of her career in this poignant episode.

The wild night ride which ends in a tragedy is executed with Brenon's finest suggestive realism.

Wilson's scene with his faithless wife give one a graphic delineation of a jealousy-ridden weakling tottering on the brink of insanity.

There's real drama contained in that sequence when Nick Carraway finally recognizes the heroic qualities of his mysterious friend. The lonely death of Gatsby and his pathetic funeral—a hearse and one mourner—will bring tears to the eyes of the most hardened moviegoer.

The work of the individual artists cannot be passed over. Warner Baxter, playing the title role, rises to heights which he has never before reached. Lois Wilson's work is mentioned elsewhere. Neil Hamilton gives his usual sincere portrayal and Georgia Hale reveals herself an apt tragedienne.

So much for the featured players. But the rest of the cast cannot be lightly dismissed. William Powell, the garage-keeper, contributes an excellent characterization. Hale Hamilton, quasi-heavy, wins honors as the blustering, philandering husband. Carmelita Geraghty, one of the most talented of the screen s younger generation, makes her Paramount debut in "The Great Gatsby."

Changes Proposed In Constitution of Irish Free State

DUBLIN.—A committee appointed to consider proposed changes in the Constitution of the Irish Free State has made very mild suggestions in regard to alteration.

Its main recommendations are four in number:

That the chairman of Dail Eirann should be returned unopposed at the next general election.

Abolition of a public holiday on election day, but more convenient polling hours.

Increase of the maximum life of the Dail from four to six years.

Increase of the maximum membership of the executive council from seven to twelve.

A majority of the committee also agreed that the chairman of the Dail should keep himself clear from politics during his term of office.

The proposals are likely to be accepted.

STAGE SET FOR CHAPLIN-LITA GREY DIVORCE CASE

FILM COMEDY KING'S LAWYERS FIGHT ALIMONY

Samuel Goldwyn is Served With Court Summons.

FIRST ROUND

Preliminary Hearing May Last for Several Days.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—The stage was all set here today for the preliminary skirmish in the Charles Chaplin-Lita Grey Chaplin divorce controversy.

Attorneys representing the famous comedian were to appear in court during the day to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for Chaplin's affairs and why he should not pay alimony and counsel fees to his 18-year-old wife.

Outstanding developments in the case during the last twenty-four hours were the service of a court summons on Samuel Goldwyn, motion picture producer, and the issuance of a statement by Chaplin's attorneys in which they rapped "attempts to try the case out of court."

Goldwyn, who was directed to appear in court today, was said to be one of the two defendants referred to in Mrs. Chaplin's complaint as John Doe, the other was Loyd Wright, attorney for Chaplin.

Mrs. Chaplin believes they had control of some of her husband's property.

Scheduled to start today, the preliminary hearing may last for several days. A continuance may be asked by the defense on the ground that Gavin McNab, San Francisco attorney, had just been retained and had not had time enough to become familiar with the case.

Scarlet Fever Warning

Hence the necessity of thorough disinfection of the discharges of the nose, throat, mouth and ear.

"The first symptoms of scarlet fever may be headache, fever, vomiting and sore throat. After these symptoms have persisted for 24 to 48 hours a scarlet rash appears over the body. After a variable time the rash fades and the skin begins to peel off in fine flakes. There are many forms of scarlet fever, but all are equally dangerous to the public for a fatal attack may result from contact with the mildest case. In epidemics some cases occur without a rash. When one case follows another in a community it is convincing evidence that someone is careless in taking the necessary measures to prevent its spread.

"When the disease develops, immediately have the patient isolated in a room and allow no one save the physician to visit him. The room should be furnished only with the absolute necessities. Choose a large airy room with plenty of fresh air and sunshine. The house is quarantined and no one can enter or leave the house except the physician and the bread-winner by special permission of the board of health. All utensils used by the patient should be kept apart from those of the rest of the family. All linen and clothing should be such that can be soaked in disinfectant solution and boiled. No article from the sick room should be admitted to the general family wash until it has been thoroughly disinfected for an hour and then boiled."

How to Restore Lost Appetite

And Build Firm, Solid Flesh, And Renew Vitality

Thousands of men and women lack appetite and are "finicky" about what they eat and so find their energy and vigor slipping away. Thousands of other men and women eat heartily, even to the point of "stuffing" yet they remain thin and can't seem to get any "pep."

Such conditions are due to faulty nutritive processes. Lack of stimulation to the mouth and stomach glands is the real cause. We all need better digestion of our food. Scientists are telling us about this as announced nearly every day in the newspapers and medical journals.

If your appetite is poor or if you eat a lot and you still remain thin and lacking in vitality, try this—a good stimulant three times a day with your meals. You will be satisfied with the improvement and results will come quickly.

A remarkable stimulant-tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic.' Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.

$700 PLEDGED TO MEET COST OF TABERNACLE

East End Church Members Respond to Evangelists' Appeal.

OCCUPY BUILDING

Fife Brothers Assist in Dedication of House of Worship.

Nearly $700, or approximately $200 in excess of the cost of the addition, was pledged Sunday afternoon at the dedication ceremonies of the Second Church of Christ tabernacle, Pennsylvania avenue, East End. The cost of the tabernacle, erected with volunteer labor last Thursday, was about $500.

Plan of the evangelists, Dr. Clyde Lee and Bob Fife, "log cabin boys from Kentucky," who are holding a series of services at the church, is to liquidate a debt of a little more than $500 which is also on the main church building. These pledges are payable in monthly installments beginning March 1, 1927.

The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Dr. Fife, head of the evangelistic party. The audience practically filled the building, which has a seating capacity of more than 800 persons. Rev. C. Melvin McKay, pastor, offered the opening prayer, while Bob Fife conducted the singing and rendered selections on a hand saw and with a trombone.

The day's work came to a climax last night when Dr. Fife preached a sermon on "What Shall I Do With Jesus?"

Among the visitors was a delegation of Klansmen in full regalia.

Tonight is student night at the tabernacle. The sermon on "Bobbed Hair" will be delivered Tuesday night. On Wednesday night, the prize fight sermon will be given. The evangelists will speak, sing and play at a W. C. T. U. meeting Thursday afternoon in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Thursday evening, they will be guests at the Kiwanis club dinner and later will conduct Lodge night services in the tabernacle. Friday night is Pottery night. Saturday is rest day.

George Young

er gave us $80—all the money she had. My mother's a widow you know, but she had faith in me and knew it was a paying investment.

Widowed Mother Happy.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17.—"My goodness, isn't it lovely," today declared Mrs. Jane Young, widowed mother of 17-year-old George Young, who paddled his way to victory and a $25,000 prize in the Catalina channel swim in California spurred on by his desire to end the hardship of his parent.

It was for this love of his mother that youthful George risked his amateur standing to invest his scanty funds in a motorcycle to carry him from Canada to California for a try at a small fortune.

When the motorcycle caught on fire after George got beyond Chicago, he continued the trip by train, on foot, and by "hitches."

"George has always been a good son, light hearted but never frivolous," said Mrs. Young today. "He has always been industrious and studied hard in school.'

Mrs. Young said her son liked particularly to eat porterhouse steak and drink tea. He is a strong eater, she said.

"Has George a sweetheart?"

"Goodness gracious," Mrs. Young replied. "He is much too young to think of girls. He hasn't any sweetheart that I know of and I don't want him to think seriously of marrying for quite a while yet."

Mrs. Young explained that when she was left alone with George when her husband died she made her living by cooking and waiting on a table. She said she wasn't "a bit ashamed of it."

When George was 16 his mother suffered an injury and he was forced to quit school and go to work.

John W. Crawford Is Held at Midland On Forgery Charge

John W. Crawford, 24, East Liverpool, is being held by Beaver county officials today for arraignment before Justice of the Peace David Stewart at Beaver, upon a charge of forgery, following his return from Eureka, California, where he was arrested about 10 days ago.

Crawford, brought to the Beaver county seat by District Attorney J. Blaine McGoun and County Detective Daniel M. Baker, Saturday night, is alleged to have cashed a check for $1,500 at the Midland Savings & Trust Company, Midland, on December 6, 1926. The check was drawn upon an East Liverpool bank.

He is alleged to have accepted $400 in cash and placed the remaining $1,100 in a checking account. The check was returned to the Midland bank a few days later marked "forgery."

Whereabouts of the young man remained a mystery until about two weeks ago when bank officials received a telegram from him at Eureka, Cal., asking that he be telegraphed $1,000 of the $1,100 which was on deposit. Frank M. Potts, assistant cashier, signed an affidavit in Justice Stewart's court on December 30, last charging forgery.

79 MEN HEAR WALTER GOODE

Youngstown Man Speaks at Sunday Club Meeting.

Seventy-nine young men attended the initial meeting of the Sunday Afternoon club in the banquet hall of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

Walter S. Goode, manager of the Central Square garage, Youngstown, spoke on the subject, "Facing the Facts." Music was rendered by the Presbyterian male quartet.

In part Goode said:

"Youth is being attacked in this day and age but the present generation is the best of all times. A prophet once said, 'the world must turn from a neighborhood to a brotherhood.' When the great war began people said that the Christian religion had failed but it really never had been nationally tried before.

"Religion is what you do, not what you don't do. It is a positive, not a negative quantity. Christianity is to show mercy, be just, kind and humble. Lloyd George, English premier, once said, 'Either the religion of Christ or chaos.' The act of the good Samaritan was a religious Christ-like act. Let self be slain, help me to love for others. When American people were killed in the Boxer uprising and the Chinese government paid a $19,000,000 indemnity, it was returned with the message that they send their brightest young men and women to America to be educated."

LESS TENSION IN NICARAGUA

Mexico Situation, Too, Improving, Washington Reports.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — The extreme tenseness that has marked the Mexican-Nicaraguan situation since American warships and marines were concentrated in Caribbean waters appeared lessening today.

Both in Washington and in Latin-America strongly backed movements are afoot to find a solution of the difficulties that will restore military peace in Nicaragua, and political peace in Washington.

STAGE SET FOR CHAPLIN-LITA GREY DIVORCE CASE

FILM COMEDY KING'S LAWYERS FIGHT ALIMONY

Samuel Goldwyn is Served With Court Summons.

FIRST ROUND

Preliminary Hearing May Last for Several Days.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—The stage was all set here today for the preliminary skirmish in the Charles Chaplin-Lita Grey Chaplin divorce controversy.

Attorneys representing the famous comedian were to appear in court during the day to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for Chaplin's affairs and why he should not pay alimony and counsel fees to his 18-year-old wife.

Outstanding developments in the case during the last twenty-four hours were the service of a court summons on Samuel Goldwyn, motion picture producer, and the issuance of a statement by Chaplin's attorneys in which they rapped "attempts to try the case out of court."

Goldwyn, who was directed to appear in court today, was said to be one of the two defendants referred to in Mrs. Chaplin's complaint as John Doe, the other was Loyd Wright, attorney for Chaplin.

Mrs. Chaplin believes they had control of some of her husband's property.

Scheduled to start today, the preliminary hearing may last for several days. A continuance may be asked by the defense on the ground that Gavin McNab, San Francisco attorney, had just been retained and had not had time enough to become familiar with the case.

Scarlet Fever Warning

Hence the necessity of thorough disinfection of the discharges of the nose, throat, mouth and ear.

"The first symptoms of scarlet fever may be headache, fever, vomiting and sore throat. After these symptoms have persisted for 24 to 48 hours a scarlet rash appears over the body. After a variable time the rash fades and the skin begins to peel off in fine flakes. There are many forms of scarlet fever, but all are equally dangerous to the public for a fatal attack may result from contact with the mildest case. In epidemics some cases occur without a rash. When one case follows another in a community it is convincing evidence that someone is careless in taking the necessary measures to prevent its spread.

"When the disease develops, immediately have the patient isolated in a room and allow no one save the physician to visit him. The room should be furnished only with the absolute necessities. Choose a large airy room with plenty of fresh air and sunshine. The house is quarantined and no one can enter or leave the house except the physician and the bread-winner by special permission of the board of health. All utensils used by the patient should be kept apart from those of the rest of the family. All linen and clothing should be such that can be soaked in disinfectant solution and boiled. No article from the sick room should be admitted to the general family wash until it has been thoroughly disinfected for an hour and then boiled."

How to Restore Lost Appetite

And Build Firm, Solid Flesh, And Renew Vitality

Thousands of men and women lack appetite and are "finicky" about what they eat and so find their energy and vigor slipping away. Thousands of other men and women eat heartily, even to the point of "stuffing" yet they remain thin and can't seem to get any "pep."

Such conditions are due to faulty nutritive processes. Lack of stimulation to the mouth and stomach glands is the real cause. We all need better digestion of our food. Scientists are telling us about this as announced nearly every day in the newspapers and medical journals.

If your appetite is poor or if you eat a lot and you still remain thin and lacking in vitality, try this—a good stimulant three times a day with your meals. You will be satisfied with the improvement and results will come quickly.

A remarkable stimulant-tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic.' Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.

$700 PLEDGED TO MEET COST OF TABERNACLE

East End Church Members Respond to Evangelists' Appeal.

OCCUPY BUILDING

Fife Brothers Assist in Dedication of House of Worship.

Nearly $700, or approximately $200 in excess of the cost of the addition, was pledged Sunday afternoon at the dedication ceremonies of the Second Church of Christ tabernacle, Pennsylvania avenue, East End. The cost of the tabernacle, erected with volunteer labor last Thursday, was about $500.

Plan of the evangelists, Dr. Clyde Lee and Bob Fife, "log cabin boys from Kentucky," who are holding a series of services at the church, is to liquidate a debt of a little more than $500 which is also on the main church building. These pledges are payable in monthly installments beginning March 1, 1927.

The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Dr. Fife, head of the evangelistic party. The audience practically filled the building, which has a seating capacity of more than 800 persons. Rev. C. Melvin McKay, pastor, offered the opening prayer, while Bob Fife conducted the singing and rendered selections on a hand saw and with a trombone.

The day's work came to a climax last night when Dr. Fife preached a sermon on "What Shall I Do With Jesus?"

Among the visitors was a delegation of Klansmen in full regalia.

Tonight is student night at the tabernacle. The sermon on "Bobbed Hair" will be delivered Tuesday night. On Wednesday night, the prize fight sermon will be given. The evangelists will speak, sing and play at a W. C. T. U. meeting Thursday afternoon in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Thursday evening, they will be guests at the Kiwanis club dinner and later will conduct Lodge night services in the tabernacle. Friday night is Pottery night. Saturday is rest day.

George Young

er gave us $80—all the money she had. My mother's a widow you know, but she had faith in me and knew it was a paying investment.

Widowed Mother Happy.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17.—"My goodness, isn't it lovely," today declared Mrs. Jane Young, widowed mother of 17-year-old George Young, who paddled his way to victory and a $25,000 prize in the Catalina channel swim in California spurred on by his desire to end the hardship of his parent.

It was for this love of his mother that youthful George risked his amateur standing to invest his scanty funds in a motorcycle to carry him from Canada to California for a try at a small fortune.

When the motorcycle caught on fire after George got beyond Chicago, he continued the trip by train, on foot, and by "hitches."

"George has always been a good son, light hearted but never frivolous," said Mrs. Young today. "He has always been industrious and studied hard in school.'

Mrs. Young said her son liked particularly to eat porterhouse steak and drink tea. He is a strong eater, she said.

"Has George a sweetheart?"

"Goodness gracious," Mrs. Young replied. "He is much too young to think of girls. He hasn't any sweetheart that I know of and I don't want him to think seriously of marrying for quite a while yet."

Mrs. Young explained that when she was left alone with George when her husband died she made her living by cooking and waiting on a table. She said she wasn't "a bit ashamed of it."

When George was 16 his mother suffered an injury and he was forced to quit school and go to work.

John W. Crawford Is Held at Midland On Forgery Charge

John W. Crawford, 24, East Liverpool, is being held by Beaver county officials today for arraignment before Justice of the Peace David Stewart at Beaver, upon a charge of forgery, following his return from Eureka, California, where he was arrested about 10 days ago.

Crawford, brought to the Beaver county seat by District Attorney J. Blaine McGoun and County Detective Daniel M. Baker, Saturday night, is alleged to have cashed a check for $1,500 at the Midland Savings & Trust Company, Midland, on December 6, 1926. The check was drawn upon an East Liverpool bank.

He is alleged to have accepted $400 in cash and placed the remaining $1,100 in a checking account. The check was returned to the Midland bank a few days later marked "forgery."

Whereabouts of the young man remained a mystery until about two weeks ago when bank officials received a telegram from him at Eureka, Cal., asking that he be telegraphed $1,000 of the $1,100 which was on deposit. Frank M. Potts, assistant cashier, signed an affidavit in Justice Stewart's court on December 30, last charging forgery.

79 MEN HEAR WALTER GOODE

Youngstown Man Speaks at Sunday Club Meeting.

Seventy-nine young men attended the initial meeting of the Sunday Afternoon club in the banquet hall of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

Walter S. Goode, manager of the Central Square garage, Youngstown, spoke on the subject, "Facing the Facts." Music was rendered by the Presbyterian male quartet.

In part Goode said:

"Youth is being attacked in this day and age but the present generation is the best of all times. A prophet once said, 'the world must turn from a neighborhood to a brotherhood.' When the great war began people said that the Christian religion had failed but it really never had been nationally tried before.

"Religion is what you do, not what you don't do. It is a positive, not a negative quantity. Christianity is to show mercy, be just, kind and humble. Lloyd George, English premier, once said, 'Either the religion of Christ or chaos.' The act of the good Samaritan was a religious Christ-like act. Let self be slain, help me to love for others. When American people were killed in the Boxer uprising and the Chinese government paid a $19,000,000 indemnity, it was returned with the message that they send their brightest young men and women to America to be educated."

LESS TENSION IN NICARAGUA

Mexico Situation, Too, Improving, Washington Reports.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — The extreme tenseness that has marked the Mexican-Nicaraguan situation since American warships and marines were concentrated in Caribbean waters appeared lessening today.

Both in Washington and in Latin-America strongly backed movements are afoot to find a solution of the difficulties that will restore military peace in Nicaragua, and political peace in Washington.

STATE SCHOOL WORK DETAILED

Superintendent Ford in Statement Replies to Adverse Criticism.

The people of West Virginia are receiving good value for their "educational dollars," apart from any consideration of the advancement in the intellectual and moral capacities of the state's 400,000 boys and girls who are being trained for future citizenship, it is asserted by George M. Ford, superintendent of schools.

The statement was made with reference to some adverse criticism of the heavy increase in school expenditures from 1915 to 1926. This criticism Ford attributed to a superficial knowledge of the subject and a consequent hasty conclusion.

The purchasing power of the dollar figured conspicuously in the increased outlay for successive years of the ten-year period. The 1915 dollar would purchase as much school education as $1.61 would in 1925. Therefore, while the elementary and high schools cost the taxpayers $23,362,486 in 1925 and only $6,984,350 in 1915 it would have required, $11,225 081 in 1925 to carry on the education program of 1915.

This is the major but by no means the only thing to explain the big cost jump for the decade. The school program for 1925 was a fifty per cent enlargement over the program for 1915, due to actual increase in daily attendance. This increased attendance accounts for $5,632,540 of the increase in expenses.

Then, too, during the ten years the school term has been increased from 137 to 167 days, or practically twenty per cent. This increase in the length of the term accounts for $2,379,524. "These are accumulating and not compensating factors and consequently should be added," Superintendent Ford explains.

The foregoing items of increased expense accounts for $22,710,402 of the remaining $23,362,486 spent in 1925. Of the remaining $652,084, the sum of $202, 443 is accounted for in a duplication of the amount assigned to the transfer of pupils, the corresponding item in 1915 being almost negligible. The remaining $449,641 is more than accounted for by the difference in building costs. In 1915 $1,715,408 of the school cost was for school buildings. Five years later the same type of building cost three times as much.

Mr. Ford also submits that in an analysis of cost figures due importance should be given to the comparative quality of the education. The two most prominent factors in this regard are the teacher and the building and equipment. The education department computes the per cent of increase in school expenses due to improved qualifications of teachers to be twelve per cent. This does not mean that the salary increases have been twelve per cent, but that on the same salary schedule, the one now in use, the teachers received twelve per cent more than the same number of teachers in 1915.

HEALTH BOARD ISSUES WARNING

The state health department has just issued a warning to all parents to place special guards around their children during these first three months of the year, as these are dangerous days. This warning is based on the figures for 1925, the latest available ones, which show that 947 of West Virginia's children under seven years of age died of respirator diseases, such as pneumonia, influenza, whooping cough, etc., the greatest number of deaths occurring in January, February and March.

Don't treat it lightly. Disease germs always find a fine breeding place in the raw, sensitive membranes—they multiply rapidly, infect the throat tissues, and unless checked, may cause a dangerous inflammation.

Act at once, at the first sign of a cough, and take PERTUSSIN before it is too late. Prevent this inflammation from spreading into the "Danger Zone" and developing into Bronchitis—Pneumonia—or worse complications.

PERTUSSIN brings healing comfort and helps to free you of sticky, germ-laden mucus that clogs the air passages. For safety's sake, get a bottle today. If your cough has already settled in the "danger zone", you should see your Doctor.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Rheumatism can't be rubbed away

Are you one of those unfortunates who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered from rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried most everything. Went to Hot Springs and finally I decided to try S. S. S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I also had a breaking out on my hands for years that nothing would heal, but now this has disappeared, and I am sure that it was S. S. S. which removed the cause. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S. S. S. is the best." Carl C. Campbell, 115 West Main street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this famous home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. It tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, which has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LILLIAN GISH AT AMERICAN

Plays Role of Hester Prynne in "Scarlet Letter."

Lillian Gish, celebrated star of the screen, has just fulfilled ai ambition of some six years in playing the role of "Hester Prynne" in Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic romance, "The Scarlet Letter." For six years the actress has mentally rehearsed the role, hoping that some day she would be given an opportunity to play the dramatic heroine of one of the most famous romances in the world.

The fulfillment of her ambition will be seen commencing today at the American theatre when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will present her in the role.

Miss Gish regards the role as a tribute to her ancestors, as she is directly descended from one of the original Puritan families. In fact, the family home at Deerfield, Mass., is being maintained by the Daughters of the Revolution as a museum where the ancient furnishings and possessions of the actress' ancestors are on public display. Miss Gish is herself a member of the D. A. R.

The new picture is the dramatic story of a Puritan woman who carried a badge of shame through life to shield the man she loved. It was staged on a lavish scale, with a huge cast of celebrities, nearly a thousand men, women and children in the larger scenes, and in elaborate settings. An entire replica of America's first Puritan village was constructed for the big production, her second Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "La Boheme" being the first.

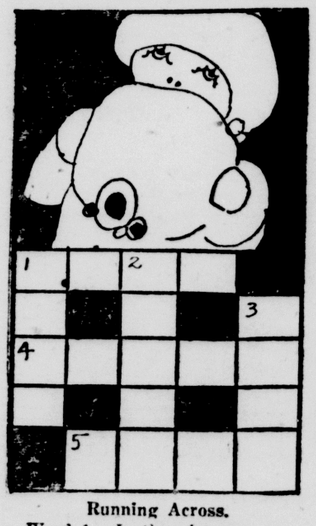

Victor Seastrom, famous as the director of "He Who Gets Slapped" and "The Tower of Lies," directed the production. Lars Hanson, famous Swedish star, makes his American debut as her leading man, and Henry B. Walthall, Karl Dane, Marcelle Corday, William H. Tooker, Jules Cowles, Fred Herzog and other notable players appear in supporting roles.

JOHNSON GOES ON GRILL AT LANDIS' MEETING NEXT MONDAY

BASEBALL CZAR PLANNING MOVE TO END SCANDAL

Will Meet Under Cover Efforts to Embarrass His Regime.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Scandal and backstairs whispering, for which the off season of 1926-27 will go down in the books at the most notorious in history, will cease abruptly with the holding of Judge Landis' special American League meeting in Chicago on January 24. The writer learned today that Landis, thoroughly fed up with undercover efforts to embarrass his regime, will force a cessation of the guerilla warfare now in progress even if he has to go so far as to drive Ban Johnson out of baseball.

He can go further than that, if the spirit moves him, for his contract gives him arbitrary power in the matter of dismissing any official whose acts or utterances are deemed inimical to the good of the game.

He has so deemed the utterances, attributed to "a well-known official," that neither Cobb nor Speaker ever again will be permitted to play in the American League, that statement, if proved to be correct, will completely nullify the effect Landis hoped to create by failing to go on record as to the guilt or innocence of the two stars. It, in fact, tactily declared the American League's belief in their guilt.

Landis suspects that Johnson is the author of the statement just as he is morally certain that his arch-rival jockeyed the appearances of Swede Risberg and Chick Gandil at the last scandal hearing. He even believes that Johnson inspired these two worthies to reopen the question of whether the Detroit-Chicago fund of 1917 was a bribe or a gift, knowing that this would place Landis in a tough spot.

That, at least, was the general impression around the hearing particularly since some of Johnson's spokesmen were very active in behalf of Risberg and Gandil at the time.

Now, however, it will be Johnson's turn on the griddle. Landis has called his special meeting with but one idea in mind; to find out whether the American league held out on him when it turned over the Cobb-Speaker case to him for a decision or whether Johnson merely is popping off. Either way, Johnson is due to be abashed.

If it was a pop-off, then Landis will be in a position to demand Johnson's scalp on the ground that it endangered not only the judge's position but that of baseball as well. If it was a hold-out, then Johnson, having had the early investigation in direct charge, will be held culpable again.

It would not be surprising, on the whole, if Landis threatened to retire from office, just as he did several years ago when Johnson openly attacked him. Baseball felt it couldn't afford to let the judge get away at that time. Can it afford it any more at this time? When you have mastered that one, you will know just what a trying afternoon of it Ban Johnson will put in next Monday.

WILDE'S FIVE COPS ANOTHER

Defeat Salineville On Chester Court.

CHESTER and Salineville high school basketballers divided honors in a double header Saturday night on the West Virginia court, Wilde's boys beating the opposition to the wire at a 33-21 gait, while the girls were losing, 33 to 7.

The Chester quint had the edge most of the way, the visitors doing very little against the five-man defense. Salineville's scoring attempts came mostly from back court, few of which variety found the spot. On the other hand the West Virginians played short passes to the basket, attempting the long distance route infrequently.

The Chesterites got away to a commanding start in the third period, the visitors being played off their feet during the half. Miller put Chester in the lead with a foul goal. Bartley got through the Salineville defense for another field goal. Hindes dropped a nice one in from midfloor and Simcox followed with another double decker. Kimble contributed a free throw and Woodward obtained Salineville's only point of the period from the free line. Simcox's basket made the count 25 to 16 at the end of the quarter.

All of the Chester squad played nice basketball, Simcox and Bartley being the scoring stars, the former's all around playing being worthy of special mention. Lange, Smith and Woodward were the Salineville luminaries.

Salineville girls led at the first quarter, 6 to 2, and ran it up to 14-2 at the half. The last two quarters were similar to the first. Woodward, Allmon and Lance were the chief performers for the victors, Allmon dropping in eight field goals and two fouls. Skinner, Gibbs and Neal played well for the losers.

JUST KICKS 'EM OUT AND KEEPS ON TO FINISH

Cramps Fail to Stop Young Canadian Swimmer.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17. — George Young, of Toronto, Canada, was taking things easy today—and well he might. For this 17-year-old Canadian youth has made swimming history.

He was the only entry to finish the gruelling aquatic grind from Avalon, Catalina Island, to the mainland near Point Vincente, a distance of 22 miles.

More than 100 swimmers started. Covered with grease, begoggled, determination in their hearts, these sturdy men and women plunged into the chilly waters of the Pacific shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

One by one they dropped out, some exhausted, some stricken by cramps, some just plainly discouraged and some sea sick.

But George Young was not one of these. Twice he was cramp-stricken but, as he put it, "I rolled over on my back and kicked 'em out."

The second time he "kicked 'em out," he "kicked 'em out" for good. After that he never faltered, keeping up his powerful stroke until he was a short distance from the shore. There, when he ran into kelp beds after being in the water for more than 15 hours, he was forced to put on added power. He had it in reserve. He cleaved his way through the kelp and a few moments later he was on shore. He made the swim in 15 hours 48 minutes and 35 seconds.

For this stupendous feat, the Toronto boy will get the $25,000 offered by William Wrigley, Chicago chewing gum magnate who promoted the swim. Which is a pretty fair fortune for a young man who landed in Long Beach about two weeks ago with 60 cents in his pockets.

Young, although youthful in years, is certainly a man in size and strength. He weighs 186 pounds and is extremely muscular. He was a veritable "dark horse" in these parts, but in Canada his prowess is well known. There he is long-distance champion.

The winner of the race finished in excellent condition. Today he is resting at Santa Monica. He shows no ill effects; he is not exhausted. But it is doubtful if there is a more exuberant person on the continent.

There were other swimmers who performed notable feats. There was Norman Ross, of Chicago, a favorite to win the event, who battled to within a mile of shore; there was Peter Mayer, of Cincinnati, still four and a half miles out when he was told that Young had finished, and there were those two stalwart and courageous women, Margaret Hauser, of Long Beach, and Martha Steager, of Portland.

These two women were taken out of the water shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday morning. They had been swimming for about 19 hours and 30 minutes. Neither finished, but each will get $2,500 from Wrigley.

Three more famous sisters of the sea, Mrs. Schramm, of New York, Mrs. Schommell and Clarabelle Barrett, also of New York, had long since given up the struggle.

The temperature of the water forced most of the men swimmers to abandon the race. Sullivan, of Lowell, Mass.; Toth, of Long Beach, Calif., both conquerors of the English channel; Creegan, of Paterson, N. J.; Purchell, of San Francisco—they all went the same way. While they were being hauled from the water, that Young boy of Toronto was steadily forging toward the shore, stopping occasionally "to kick 'em out."

Although no woman finished, leaving the $15,000 prize unclaimed, it became known here today that Wrigley was planning another Catalina swim—this time for women only. Details have not yet been worked out, but it is thought it will be held in September, that a purse of $25,000 will be offered to the participants and that such famous swimmers as Gertrude Ederle and Mrs. Mille Corson will be invited to be contestants.

20 Players Are Used By Two Contenders; Final Count 61-24

Captain Jim Hamilton Leads Scorers With Eight Field Goals and Three Fouls; Visitors Get Two Goals in First Half; Reserves in Action.

WITH each school using enough men at various times for two complete teams apiece, 20 names appearing in the box score, Coach N. F. Lorah's High passers defeated Youngstown Chaney here Saturday night 61 to 24, the contest marking the initial appearance of the Steel City quint against the locals.

The engagement was practically a procession of field goals for the Blue and White teams, with every member of the first string outfit playing a superb brand of basketball to put the squad far out in front at the outset of the battle, and the reinforcements kept up the good work in subsequent stages.

And all but three of the 61 points made by the Lorah quint were "earned" points, field goals from scrimmage, only three fouls being registered by the school during the entire engagement out of nine trials, Captain Jimmy Hamilton doing the honors.

The dash with which the Blue and White five went after points at the beginning of the game completely swept the Youngstown agregation from its feet and the visitors found it difficult to regain their equilibrium in succeeding stages as the locals, first string and Reserves, dished up one of the fastest exhibitions they have put on to date.

Captain Hamilton, despite an injured knee, played a wonderful game in that first half, leading scorers of both teams for individual honors during the entire contest with eight field goals and three fouls for a total of 19 points, although he was out of the contest for a short time in the second period and at the start of the third. He and Todd were thrown together in a scrimmage under the basket and when he came out his injured knee apparently was paining him. In order to prevent further injury to the knee, Coach Lorah relieved Hamilton toward the end of the period. Hamilton had registered six field goals and then came back in the second half again to sink two more.

The Chaney quint was completely flabbergasted during the entire first quarter by the velocity and effectiveness of the East Liverpool attack. As a result the scoreboard showed a 21 to 1 tally at the end of the inaugural period.

Chaney then added five points while the Blue was making 10, sending the tally to 31-6 at the half.

The visitors developed their greatest offensive in the third quarter when they collected 11 points for a total of 17, while Lorah's crew was chalking up six, making the totals 37 to 17. The locals then topped off the night's performance with 24 more points in the final period with field goals dropping in from all angles.

Chaney displayed an innovation in the use of two teams, alternating at the quarters, and one was practically as good as the other. Hamilton, McKeever, English, Larkins and McConville started for the locals, with Bloor, Wildblood, Todd, Ankrim and Deidrick working into the game in the latter periods, every man on the squad scoring with the exception of Todd. Guard McConville ran Hamilton second for scoring honors in the first half, busketing the leather four times to Hamilton's six.

Guard Dick Larkins dropped in two in the first half and two in teh second and turned in a great floor game, he and McConville absolutely blanking the Chaney scorers in the first period and permitting only two field goals in the second. Heimie Deidrick, after playing a full game with the Reserves in the preliminary, came back to perform with the regulars in the second half and counted three double deckers.

Landis Tarred Tris And Ty, Not League, Declares Johnson

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Ban H. Johnson, president of the American League, broke a long silence today to say that he not only would attend the meeting of league officials set by Commissioner Landis for Jan. 24, but that he would prove to the public that Commissioner K. M. Landis, and not the American League, tarred Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker.

Johnson practically admitted he was the author of the published statement which quoted a "high American League official" as saying that "neither Cobb nor Speaker will ever again manage or play on an American League team."

Although Johnson reiterates that Cobb and Speaker will never return to the American League, almost in the same breath he pays Cobb one of the highest tributes ever paid a ball player. Johnson said:

"I don't believe Cobb ever played a dishonest game in his life. If that's the exoneration he seeks I gladly give it to him. But it is from Landis, Cobb should demand an explanation. The American League ousted Cobb, but it was Landis who broadcast the story of his mistakes."

Johnson said he would take the stand at the hearing next Monday and his testimony would prove that the American League acted to protect Cobb and Speaker, and that the commissioner himself is to blame for the cloud that hangs over their names.

Grange Eleven Beaten.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—"Red" Grange and his New York Yankees were still wondering what it was all about today after being handed a 39 to 6 defeat by "Brick" Mueller's Buccaneers here yesterday. Grange made one spectacular run of 35 yards on a return from the kickoff.

Imlay of the Buccaneers was the outstanding player of both teams. His runs and passes were responsible for three of the four touchdowns his team made.

JOHNSON GOES ON GRILL AT LANDIS' MEETING NEXT MONDAY

BASEBALL CZAR PLANNING MOVE TO END SCANDAL

Will Meet Under Cover Efforts to Embarrass His Regime.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Scandal and backstairs whispering, for which the off season of 1926-27 will go down in the books at the most notorious in history, will cease abruptly with the holding of Judge Landis' special American League meeting in Chicago on January 24. The writer learned today that Landis, thoroughly fed up with undercover efforts to embarrass his regime, will force a cessation of the guerilla warfare now in progress even if he has to go so far as to drive Ban Johnson out of baseball.

He can go further than that, if the spirit moves him, for his contract gives him arbitrary power in the matter of dismissing any official whose acts or utterances are deemed inimical to the good of the game.

He has so deemed the utterances, attributed to "a well-known official," that neither Cobb nor Speaker ever again will be permitted to play in the American League, that statement, if proved to be correct, will completely nullify the effect Landis hoped to create by failing to go on record as to the guilt or innocence of the two stars. It, in fact, tactily declared the American League's belief in their guilt.

Landis suspects that Johnson is the author of the statement just as he is morally certain that his arch-rival jockeyed the appearances of Swede Risberg and Chick Gandil at the last scandal hearing. He even believes that Johnson inspired these two worthies to reopen the question of whether the Detroit-Chicago fund of 1917 was a bribe or a gift, knowing that this would place Landis in a tough spot.

That, at least, was the general impression around the hearing particularly since some of Johnson's spokesmen were very active in behalf of Risberg and Gandil at the time.

Now, however, it will be Johnson's turn on the griddle. Landis has called his special meeting with but one idea in mind; to find out whether the American league held out on him when it turned over the Cobb-Speaker case to him for a decision or whether Johnson merely is popping off. Either way, Johnson is due to be abashed.

If it was a pop-off, then Landis will be in a position to demand Johnson's scalp on the ground that it endangered not only the judge's position but that of baseball as well. If it was a hold-out, then Johnson, having had the early investigation in direct charge, will be held culpable again.

It would not be surprising, on the whole, if Landis threatened to retire from office, just as he did several years ago when Johnson openly attacked him. Baseball felt it couldn't afford to let the judge get away at that time. Can it afford it any more at this time? When you have mastered that one, you will know just what a trying afternoon of it Ban Johnson will put in next Monday.

Klinck's boys finished second to the Jefferson countians in 19-15 clash, and the Orange and Black sextet lost a 30 to 17 verdict.

Five field goals by Center Shaffer of the Mingo quintet doomed the Wellsville lads. Shaffer was the only member of the visiting combine successful in penetrating the Terry-Brannan-Dickey defense.

Calhoun, playing a forward position instead of his customary post at center, registered three field goals and dropped in two fouls on the side.

Miss Connor led the Wellsville girls with three field goals, with Wickline and Irwin getting two apiece. Six by Forward Simmens, of Mingo, however, proved too big a handicap.

20 Players Are Used By Two Contenders; Final Count 61-24

Captain Jim Hamilton Leads Scorers With Eight Field Goals and Three Fouls; Visitors Get Two Goals in First Half; Reserves in Action.

WITH each school using enough men at various times for two complete teams apiece, 29 names appearing in the box score, Coach N. F. Lorah's High passers defeated Youngstown Chaney here Saturday night 61 to 24, the contest marking the initial appearance of the Steel City quint against the locals.

The engagement was practically a procession of field goals for the Blue and White teams, with every member of the first string outfit playing a superb brand of basketball to put the squad far out in front at the outset of the battle, and the reinforcements kept up the good work in subsequent stages.

And all but three of the 61 points made by the Lorah quint were "earned" points, field goals from scrimmage, only three fouls being registered by the school during the entire engagement out of nine trials, Captain Jimmy Hamilton doing the honors.

The dash with which the Blue and White five went after points at the beginning of the game completely swept the Youngstown agregation from its feet and the visitors found it difficult to regain their equilibrium in succeeding stages as the locals, first string and Reserves, dished up one of the fastest exhibitions they have put on to date.

Captain Hamilton, despite an injured knee, played a wonderful game in that first half, leading scorers of both teams for individual honors during the entire contest with eight field goals and three fouls for a total of 19 points, although he was out of the contest for a short time in the second period and at the start of the third. He and Todd were thrown together in a scrimmage under the basket and when he came out his injured knee apparently was paining him. In order to prevent further injury to the knee, Coach Lorah relieved Hamilton toward the end of the period. Hamilton had registered six field goals and then came back in the second half again to sink two more.

The Chaney quint was completely flabbergasted during the entire first quarter by the velocity and effectiveness of the East Liverpool attack. As a result the scoreboard showed a 21 to 1 tally at the end of the inaugural period.

Chaney then added five points while the Blue was making 10, sending the tally to 31-6 at the half.

The visitors developed their greatest offensive in the third quarter when they collected 11 points for a total of 17, while Lorah's crew was chalking up six, making the totals 37 to 17. The locals then topped off the night's performance with 24 more points in the final period with field goals dropping in from all angles.

Chaney displayed an innovation in the use of two teams, alternating at the quarters, and one was practically as good as the other. Hamilton, McKeever, English, Larkins and McConville started for the locals, with Bloor, Wildblood, Todd, Ankrim and Deidrick working into the game in the latter periods, every man on the squad scoring with the exception of Todd. Guard McConville ran Hamilton second for scoring honors in the first half, busketing the leather four times to Hamilton's six.

Guard Dick Larkins dropped in two in the first half and two in teh second and turned in a great floor game, he and McConville absolutely blanking the Chaney scorers in the first period and permitting only two field goals in the second. Heimie Deidrick, after playing a full game with the Reserves in the preliminary, came back to perform with the regulars in the second half and counted three double deckers.

Landis Tarred Tris And Ty, Not League, Declares Johnson

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Ban H. Johnson, president of the American League, broke a long silence today to say that he not only would attend the meeting of league officials set by Commissioner Landis for Jan. 24, but that he would prove to the public that Commissioner K. M. Landis, and not the American League, tarred Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker.

Johnson practically admitted he was the author of the published statement which quoted a "high American League official" as saying that "neither Cobb nor Speaker will ever again manage or play on an American League team."

Although Johnson reiterates that Cobb and Speaker will never return to the American League, almost in the same breath he pays Cobb one of the highest tributes ever paid a ball player. Johnson said:

"I don't believe Cobb ever played a dishonest game in his life. If that's the exoneration he seeks I gladly give it to him. But it is from Landis, Cobb should demand an explanation. The American League ousted Cobb, but it was Landis who broadcast the story of his mistakes."

Johnson said he would take the stand at the hearing next Monday and his testimony would prove that the American League acted to protect Cobb and Speaker, and that the commissioner himself is to blame for the cloud that hangs over their names.

Grange Eleven Beaten.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—"Red" Grange and his New York Yankees were still wondering what it was all about today after being handed a 39 to 6 defeat by "Brick" Mueller's Buccaneers here yesterday. Grange made one spectacular run of 35 yards on a return from the kickoff.

Imlay of the Buccaneers was the outstanding player of both teams. His runs and passes were responsible for three of the four touchdowns his team made.

Ordinance No. 3009

REGULATING AND LICENSING TAXICABS AND AUTOMOBILES KEPT FOR HIRE AND LIVERY PURPOSES IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION I. (Definitions). The Term "taxicab" shall mean and include all motor driven vehicles engaged in the business of carrying passengers for hire on the streets of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, except (1) motor busses operated on regular schedules and over regularly established routes.

The Term "taximeter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the rental charge or charge for hire of a taxicab is mechanically calculated either for distance travelled, or for waiting time, or both, and upon which, such charge will be indicated by means of figures.

The Term "mileage meter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the distance travelled by a taxicab is indicated or registered by means of figures.

SECTION II. (Owners License). Each taxicab in the City of East Liverpool shall be licensed and the owner thereof shall pay to the Mayor a license fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each taxicab, which license fee shall be in addition to the fee required to be paid on motor vehicles under the laws of the State of Ohio. All such licenses shall expire at midnight on the 31st of December of each year. When such license is taken out or issued after the 30th of June of any year, the fee shall be Five Dollars ($5.00). Upon the application of the owner of any taxicab already licensed, the Mayor may authorize the transfer of the license issued for such taxicab to another taxicab owned by the same person, firm or corporation making such application. The fee for making such transfer shall be fifty cents ($.50).

SECTION III. (Drivers Qualifications). No person shall be permitted to drive or operate a taxicab unless such person: (a) Be of the age of twenty-one (21) years or over, an American citizen and a bona fide resident of the County of Columbiana. (b) Be of sound physique, with good eyesight, and no bodily or mental infirmities which render him unfit for the safe operation of public motor vehicles. (c) Be clean in dress and person and not be addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors or drugs.

SECTION IV. (Soliciting Business). No driver of any taxicab, nor any other person while on the public streets or highways of the City or any other public place, shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle in any other way than in an ordinary tone of voice or by the display of a sign attached to his vehicle, such sign not to be more than eight (8) inches square in size and otherwise as herein provided, and no driver of any taxicab or any other person shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle when more than five (5) feet away from his vehicle, and no such driver shall seek or solicit employment by repeatedly or persistently driving his vehicle to and fro from any theatre, hotel, railway station or other place of public ingress to or egress from such place or places.

SECTION V. (Liability Insurance). It shall be unlawful to operate a taxicab, or permit such to be operated, nor shall any license be issued for a taxicab until and unless the applicant for a license hereunder exhibits to and files with the Mayor a policy or certificate of liability insurance for each taxicab for which a license is sought. Such policy will be acceptable to and approved by the Mayor and shall be written by an insurance or liability company authorized to carry on business and to write such policies in the State of Ohio. Such policy shall indemnify the applicant in the sum of at least Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for injury to one person and Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for injury to more than one person, and One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for property damage in any one accident, through the operation of the taxicab of the applicant. The said policy shall further contain a clause obligating the surety company to give ten (10) days written notice before cancellation of the policy to the Mayor, the said license to expire upon the lapse or termination of the said policy of insurance, unless another policy is furnished by said applicant.

SECTION VI. (Inspection of taxicabs). It shall be the duty of the owner of any taxicab operated under the terms and provisions of this ordinance, to exhibit said taxicab to the Mayor for inspection within five (5 days) after receiving notice from the Mayor requesting the same. An inspector designated by the said Mayor shall thereupon inspect the said taxicab and determine whether the same is in repair and in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein. Ordinance No. 3009

REGULATING AND LICENSING TAXICABS AND AUTOMOBILES KEPT FOR HIRE AND LIVERY PURPOSES IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION I. (Definitions). The Term "taxicab" shall mean and include all motor driven vehicles engaged in the business of carrying passengers for hire on the streets of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, except (1) motor busses operated on regular schedules and over regularly established routes.

The Term "taximeter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the rental charge or charge for hire of a taxicab is mechanically calculated either for distance travelled, or for waiting time, or both, and upon which, such charge will be indicated by means of figures.

The Term "mileage meter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the distance travelled by a taxicab is indicated or registered by means of figures.

SECTION II. (Owners License). Each taxicab in the City of East Liverpool shall be licensed and the owner thereof shall pay to the Mayor a license fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each taxicab, which license fee shall be in addition to the fee required to be paid on motor vehicles under the laws of the State of Ohio. All such licenses shall expire at midnight on the 31st of December of each year. When such license is taken out or issued after the 30th of June of any year, the fee shall be Five Dollars ($5.00). Upon the application of the owner of any taxicab already licensed, the Mayor may authorize the transfer of the license issued for such taxicab to another taxicab owned by the same person, firm or corporation making such application. The fee for making such transfer shall be fifty cents ($.50).

SECTION III. (Drivers Qualifications). No person shall be permitted to drive or operate a taxicab unless such person: (a) Be of the age of twenty-one (21) years or over, an American citizen and a bona fide resident of the County of Columbiana. (b) Be of sound physique, with good eyesight, and no bodily or mental infirmities which render him unfit for the safe operation of public motor vehicles. (c) Be clean in dress and person and not be addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors or drugs.

SECTION IV. (Soliciting Business). No driver of any taxicab, nor any other person while on the public streets or highways of the City or any other public place, shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle in any other way than in an ordinary tone of voice or by the display of a sign attached to his vehicle, such sign not to be more than eight (8) inches square in size and otherwise as herein provided, and no driver of any taxicab or any other person shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle when more than five (5) feet away from his vehicle, and no such driver shall seek or solicit employment by repeatedly or persistently driving his vehicle to and fro from any theatre, hotel, railway station or other place of public ingress to or egress from such place or places.

SECTION V. (Liability Insurance). It shall be unlawful to operate a taxicab, or permit such to be operated, nor shall any license be issued for a taxicab until and unless the applicant for a license hereunder exhibits to and files with the Mayor a policy or certificate of liability insurance for each taxicab for which a license is sought. Such policy will be acceptable to and approved by the Mayor and shall be written by an insurance or liability company authorized to carry on business and to write such policies in the State of Ohio. Such policy shall indemnify the applicant in the sum of at least Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for injury to one person and Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for injury to more than one person, and One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for property damage in any one accident, through the operation of the taxicab of the applicant. The said policy shall further contain a clause obligating the surety company to give ten (10) days written notice before cancellation of the policy to the Mayor, the said license to expire upon the lapse or termination of the said policy of insurance, unless another policy is furnished by said applicant.

SECTION VI. (Inspection of taxicabs). It shall be the duty of the owner of any taxicab operated under the terms and provisions of this ordinance, to exhibit said taxicab to the Mayor for inspection within five (5 days) after receiving notice from the Mayor requesting the same. An inspector designated by the said Mayor shall thereupon inspect the said taxicab and determine whether the same is in repair and in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein. If, after such inspection the said inspector finds such taxicab to be out of repair and not in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein, he shall certify such fact to the Mayor and owner in writing, and it shall be unlawful for any person to operate such taxicab under the terms and provisions of this Ordinance after such certificate is filed with the Mayor and owner. After such taxicab shall have been repaired and the respects indicated by the said inspector in such certificate the said taxicab may again be exhibited to such inspector for further inspection. If, after inspection, the inspector shall find such taxicab to be in proper repair and in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein, he shall so certify in writing, to the Mayor and to the owner and thereupon such taxicab may again be operated by the owner or driver under the terms and provisions of this Ordinance. The owner shall pay to the inspector a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) for each inspection and the proceeds arising from the collection of such fees shall be paid to the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

SECTION VII. (Taximeters and Mileage meters). Each taxicab licensed and operated on the streets of the City of East Liverpool shall be equipped with a taximeter, the dial of which shall be in a conspicuous place on said vehicle, and said taximeter shall at all times be kept in repair and shall, before any trip is started, be set at naught (0), so as to show the mileage basis. The dial of such taximeter shall be lighted from an electric light when the same is in use in the night season; or in lieu of a taximeter, each taxicab licensed and operated on the streets of the City of East Liverpool, shall be equipped with a mileage meter which shall indicate the distance travelled by said taxicab in miles or fractions thereof for any trip said taxicab makes for hire.

THREE DAY COLDS THREATEN LUNGS

A cough or cold that hangs on after the third day is a threat.

Do something! Don't wait until the cold has run its course—from your head to your throat—from throat to chest or bronchial tubes. Break up your cold before it settles in this "danger zone"; for inflammation spreads, and your bronchial tubes lead directly into your lungs.

Quickly and unfailingly Ayer's Cherry Pectoral goes straight to the seat of trouble. With the very first swallow you feel its comforting warmth. You feel its soothing, healing powers reaching deep down into your bronchial tubes. You feel it penetrating through and through the irritated membranes.

This healing medication, absorbed into the membranes themselves, breaks up the cold, stops the cough, brings prompt and lasting relief.

If you are catching cold; if you have a "head cold"; if your chest is tight; if you have a cough—even if bronchitis has developed—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at once!

urged and offered inducements for a number of years to get out into the open and take their vacations where they may enjoy the natural beauties and wonders so lavishly afforded in this country. The Federal Government has set aside particularly suitable spots as national parks. The state park movement has also grown apace and everywhere has been the urge to preserve, wherever it appeared practicable, certain areas in a natural state.

In all of these parks, however, efforts have been made to meet the demands of city bred people who are not accustomed to living primitive lives. Excellent roads have been built throughout most of the parks so that the automobile tourist may motor in comfort. For those who enjoy nature, but must have their physical comforts and luxuries, there are modern hotels with all conveniences. Those who wish a more nearly back-to-nature vacation may engage log cabins, or may use their own camping outfits. While these parks are primarily established for the purpose of preserving the natural features they contain, the enjoyment of the traveling public has been taken into consideration.

The area recently set aside, however, will be for the scientist who is much more concerned with primitive nature than in whether he will be able to get hot water for shaving and cold water for drinking.

Since this is the first reservation of its kind in this country it is the object of great interest to scientists, not only in the United States but in other nations. The plan i said to have the endorsement of such foreign notables as Dr. A. W. Hill, director of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, England, and Dr. K. Domin director of the National Museum of Prague. Natural lovers of the future will no doubt be ever grateful for the foresight displayed by those responsible for this movement.

urged and offered inducements for a number of years to get out into the open and take their vacations where they may enjoy the natural beauties and wonders so lavishly afforded in this country. The Federal Government has set aside particularly suitable spots as national parks. The state park movement has also grown apace and everywhere has been the urge to preserve, wherever it appeared practicable, certain areas in a natural state.

In all of these parks, however, efforts have been made to meet the demands of city bred people who are not accustomed to living primitive lives. Excellent roads have been built throughout most of the parks so that the automobile tourist may motor in comfort. For those who enjoy nature, but must have their physical comforts and luxuries, there are modern hotels with all conveniences. Those who wish a more nearly back-to-nature vacation may engage log cabins, or may use their own camping outfits. While these parks are primarily established for the purpose of preserving the natural features they contain, the enjoyment of the traveling public has been taken into consideration.

The area recently set aside, however, will be for the scientist who is much more concerned with primitive nature than in whether he will be able to get hot water for shaving and cold water for drinking.

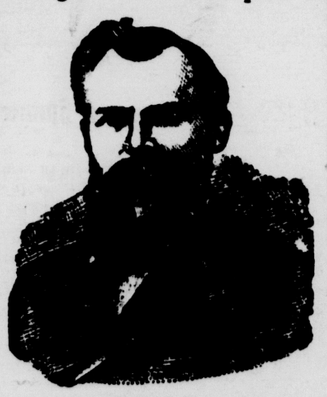

Since this is the first reservation of its kind in this country it is the object of great interest to scientists, not only in the United States but in other nations. The plan i said to have the endorsement of such foreign notables as Dr. A. W. Hill, director of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, England, and Dr. K. Domin director of the National Museum of Prague. Natural lovers of the future will no doubt be ever grateful for the foresight displayed by those responsible for this movement.

Another Religion.
Looks Like War.
Great Is Imagination.
For Better Roads.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

(The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.)

Copyright, 1926, by the Star Co.

RUSSIAN census inspectors have discovered a new religious sect—Russia has dozens of queer ones. The men and women spend their time in caves underground praying. How they could imagine that the good Lord who gives sunshine and green fields wants us to go under ground, the Lord knows. Religion has often developed such strange notions. Early Christians gathered in the catacombs fearful of eing murdered in the sunlight. Their successors starved themselves in the desert, even believed that they could improve their souls' chances by going unwashed and covered with vermin. Strange notion for one made in God's image.

"LOOKS like war with Mexico," Washington correspondents say, who ought to know and probably do not. This nation is much annoyed with President Calles of Mexico because he helps Sacasa, Nicaragua Liberal, trying to be president.

That is puzzling, for after all Mexico is an independent nation, not a dominion, and should have as good a right to take sides with Sacasa as we to take sides with Diaz.

In this interesting situation, many strings are pulled in this and other countries that the dear public doesn't see.

[illegible] pulling weather, [illegible] er's children, etc., and raised American Telephone & Telegraph stock enough to make many millions difference.

Imagination is more powerful than facts, but even imagination can hardly guess what the big telephone and telegraph monopoly will be worth in time, if nothing happens to it.

NEW YORK puts two cents tax on each gallon of gasoline to improve roads, California and other states have the same tax, a wise one. Every dollar the automobile owner thus pays, he gets back more than double, saving on tire and increased mileage per gallon. A rough road is the really heavy tax on motors, although some don't know it.

STATISTICS for the past year show that the board of trade in Chicago sold in 12 months 34,000,000,000 bushels of grain. In one month more than 3,000,000,000 bushels of wheat were "sold." It interests farmers to see brokers selling in a month 10 times as much wheat as the United States can grow in a year. But that's business, grain is only farming.

CALL ON LEGISLATURE TO SUBMIT ISSUE OF VOTING MACHINE USE

Dr. Charles Jordan Named Member of Fisher's Cabinet

Dr. Charles G. Jordan, Volant, Lawrence County, Pa., former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, has been named secretary of agriculture in the cabinet of Governor-elect John S. Fisher, who takes the oath of office as the Keystone state's chief executive at Harrisburg tomorrow.

Dr. Jordan, who is widely known in East Liverpool, conducted revival services here about two years ago. He is now operating a stock farm at Volant, near New Castle. He was a member of the Pennsylvania house of representatives for two terms.

Members of Special Board Suggest Selection of Four State Officials and Appointment of Others.

FOUR-YEAR TERM IS RECOMMENDED

Report is Forwarded to General Assembly Members by Judge J. C. Hanley, Committee Secretary.

Adoption of a short ballot in the election of all state officials is advocated by the special election committee of which Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley is a member, in recommendations which were filed with the elections committee of the state legislature at Columbus today.

Three Recommendations.

The committee, which has been working on the recodification of the election laws for more than a year, urges that the assembly take steps at this session to submit three constitutional amendments to the electors. These proposed changes are:

First—For approval of a short ballot which would provide for the election of four state officials—the governor and three others to be designated by the legislature. The governor would be empowered to appoint all other officials.

Second—That all state officials be elected for terms of four instead of two years.

Third—That the use of voting machines in the state be legalized.

Proposed Changes.

The proposed new draft of the state election laws also provides for the following important changes:

The use of one ballot, upon which all candidates for office including the judiciary, and all questions submitted to the electorate, will appear.

Elimination of the names of presidential electors from the ballot and the use of the names of the candidates for president and vice-president substituted.

Reduction in the number of election precincts with 150 voters or less from four judges and two clerks to two judges and two clerks.

Elimination of the printing of the sheriff's election proclamation and printed lists of electors in each precinct.

Increase in the number of voters required for the formation of a new precinct from 200 to 250 voters.

Biennial registration instead of annual registration in all registration

FACES DAMAGE ACTION AFTER FINDING SONS

[illegible] Parents of Edgar [illegible]

ONE BOY HELD

Court Fight Climax of Mrs. Mary McCoy's Long Search.

Mrs. Mary McCoy, Detroit, Mich., who came to Lisbon last week to join her two sons, after a 17-year search, today faces a suit for $3,000, filed against her by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruhl, of Elkrun township, for the maintenance, support and education of her son, Edward, who has resided with the Ruhl family for about 16 years.

At a hearing before Judge Charles M. Moore in common pleas court No 2 at Lisbon, Saturday, upon habeas corpus proceedings brought by Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl, the youth was permitted to choose between the Ruhl family and his mother. The boy immediately chose his mother. Mrs. McCoy was served with notification of the damage suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl as she was leaving the court house after the hearing. Her divorced husband, Edward Ridgely, of Broadway, East Liverpool, and father of the boy, is a party defendant in the action.

The boy was taken from the Fairmount Children's home at Alliance by Harry and Ellen Ruhl on March 11, 1911, when he was but two years of age. The Ruhls entered into a contract with officials at the home to clothe and educate the youth and not until his mother appeared in Lisbon last week was he aware that Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl were not his real parents.

Russell Sitler, 19, who is also a son of Mrs. McCoy, is in the county jail awaiting transfer to the Mansfield reformatory where he will serve an indeterminate sentence upon a larceny charge to which he pleaded guilty about two weeks ago. Young Sitler has been in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sitler since he was taken from the Fairmont orphanage about 16 years ago. Mrs. McCoy claims that she spent hundreds of dollars in the search for her two sons, who were placed in the home by her husband while she was ill in a hospital.

HEALTH CHIEF WARNS AGAINST SCARLET FEVER SPREAD HERE

Between 25 and 30 Cases are Reported Quarantined.

HINTS ARE GIVEN

Dr. Edward Miskall Asks Co-operation of Parents.

Dr. Edward Miskall, city health commissioner and other health board officials today, took steps to check the spread of scarlet fever, which has been prevalent in East Liverpool for a week or 10 days. Between 25 and 30 cases of the disease are now under quarantine, according to health board records.

An appeal for co-operation on the part of the parents was made by the health commissioner. Parents are urged to keep their children away from those suffering from a sore throat, and should they develop an irritated throat keep them isolated from other children. Warning was also given again the dangers of mingling in public assemblies.

Quarantines which have been established will be maintained for 30 days.

"Scarlet fever is a dangerous communicable disease, of much more importance than smallpox in our state because of its greater mortality," says Dr. Miskall. "More than 300 persons die of scarlet fever in Ohio every year and this does not take into account the large number who die of a complication of scarlet fever such as kidney trouble and middle ear infections.

"More than 14,000 cases were reported in Ohio by physicians last year and it is probable that several hundred cases were unreported. Death, sickness, expense, interruption to school work and interference with business are the results of neglect to enforce measures for the prevention of scarlet fever.

"The disease is transmitted from one person to another by the secretions of the mouth, nose and discharging ear. The scales that come off late in the disease are not in themselves infectious but are apt to become so through contamination by the discharges from the nose and mouth.

U. S. Supreme Court Rules Senate May Call Bank Records

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.— The power of the senate to subpoena records and witnesses in official investigations was upheld by the supreme court today in a decision of far-reaching importance, which involved the constitutional powers of the legislative branch of the government.

The decision was rendered in the case of Mal S. Daugherty, brother of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, and is an outgrowth of the senate's famous investigation into the department of justice while the latter was its head.

Mal S. Daugherty, head of a bank at Washington Court House, Ohio, refused to give the senatorial investigators access to records of the bank, and also refused to answer questions put to him by the investigators, and in the court test that followed challenged the constitutional powers of the senate to compel him to do so.

Emmett B. Blake, War Vet, Chosen Store Watchman

From a field of approximately 100 applicants, Emmett B. Blake, Gardendale, today was chosen as merchants' nightwatchman, to succeed John Richards, resigned.

Blake has been working as a bridge carpenter for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, but had police experience at Midland. He is a World war veteran. He will receive $150 per month.

Blake will assume his duties February 1.

300 Men and Women Will Hear U. S. Senator Copeland

Plans Completed for Chamber of Commerce Dinner Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Night.

Plans for the eleventh annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow evening at which Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York will speak, have been completed, with the reservation of 300 places for men and women guests.

Senator Copeland will arrive here tomorrow afternoon, and will proceed to the Travelers' hotel where he will remain until the start of the evening's activities.

Compelled to start on his return trip to Washington immediately after making his address, it will be imperative that the banquet be served promptly at 6 o'clock. He will go from here to Rochester, Pa., where he will board the "Red Arrow" flyer on the Pennsylvania railroad, arriving in the Capital City 9:45 on Wednesday morning.

Senator Copeland's subject will be "Problems of the Day." With the Nicaraguan-Mexican situation in an acute condition; the agricultural dilemma unsettled; fight over the seating of three senators-elect pending, and the tax question in a position that is not permanent, the nationally known physician, now given to legislating for the country, will have much to say that will be compelling and thought provoking.

Solos will be rendered by Attorney Blaine H. Cochran. The DeMar Miller orchestra will play.

The annual report of the Chamber will be distributed.

A squad of Boy Scouts will be on duty to care for the guests' wraps.

The dinner will be served by Caterer and Mrs. John Bailey of the Y. M. C. A. restaurant.

MANY MEASURES WILL BE DUMPED INTO LEGISLATIVE HOPPERS TONIGHT

State Representatives and Senators Will go to Work in Earnest This Week.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 17.—A large number of bills and resolutions are expected to be dumped into the legislative hoppers when the senate and house reconvenes here at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

After devoting the past two weeks largely to preliminary arrangements, including se[illegible]ons of standing committees, the legislators will go to work in earnest this week.

Important measures scheduled for introduction this week include bills embodying recommendations of the joint legislative committee on taxation and economy. Scores of bills, it was indicated, dealing with varied phases of state governmental activity, will be in the lot.

The senate rules committee, at a session Tuesday, is expected to decide whether it will recommend that the senate confirm Governor Vic Donahey's recent appointments, including members of the state industrial commission.

Joint sessions of the senate and house committees on finances and on taxation are contemplated with a view to speeding up legislative work. The finance committees report out appropriation measures and the taxation committee recommend bills providing for increased taxes, or decreases in revenues.

MRS. MARTHA MACKINTOSH, 77, DIES IN J. E. WHITE HOME HERE

Funeral Services Will be Held at 2 O'clock Tomorrow Afternoon in Charge of Rev. L. J. Davison.

Mrs. D. A. Mackintosh, 77, Women's Christian Temperance Union leader and a resident of East Liverpool for approximately 50 years, died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. White, 912 St. George street, at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mackintosh, whose maiden name was Martha Washington McKenty, was born in Philadelphia, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James McKenty. She was a niece of Robert McKenty, who was warden of the Eastern Pennsylvania penitentiary, Philadelphia, for many years.

Mrs. Mackintosh was a former president of Crusade Union W. C. T. U. and was active in the First United Presbyterian church.

She is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Hugh Patterson and Miss Emma McKenty, and three children, Mrs. J. E. White, this city; Charles Pittenger, Cleveland, and Guy Pittenger, Newell

Funeral services will be conducted in the White home, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in charge of Rev. L. J. Davison, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, and Dr. J. O. Campbell, of the Second United Presbyterian church. They will be assisted by Rev. B. R. Johnson, of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Friends may view the body from 7 to 9 o'clock tonight.

County Motor Club Directors to Meet Tonight in Lisbon

Board of directors of the Columbiana County Motor club will meet in the office of Herman C. Armstrong, Lisbon, at 7:30 o'clock tonight to arrange for a series of district membership meetings at which directors will be elected.

The directors will also discuss proposed legislation affecting the automobile owner which the state legislature will consider at its present session.

TWO DRY LAW CASES DISMISSED

Lorenzo Harmon and Bradley Burns who were arrested about two weeks ago upon affidavits signed by Chief of Police McDermott charged with selling intoxicating liquors, were dismissed by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley this morning upon recommendation of Solicitor Hoover.

Mike Davis, private sleuth, who is alleged to have purchased liquor from the two men, has disappeared, according to police. Both men pleaded not guilty and the police were without evidence to convict them.

Non-Support Case Settled.

Frank C. Wilson was released from custody today following a hearing before Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley upon charges of non-support filed by his wife, Mrs. Grace Wilson.

Wilson agreed to contribute $5.00 weekly toward the support of his five-year-old daughter, Mary Elizabeth Wilson.

FOOCHOW MOBS TURN RIFLES ON AMERICAN WORSHIP PLACE

English Properties Also are Reported Targets of Riotous Gangs.

WARSHIP SAILS

Dispatches to London Report Situation as Grave.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Chinese mobs have attacked American and English churches and residences in Foochow, according to dispatches received here today.

The United States destroyer Pillsbury is reported to have left Shanghai for Foochow to protect Americans there.

Looting is Reported.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church today received a cablegram from Bishop Brown in Foochow, stating that there had been looting in the city but there had been no attack upon the Methodist mission which is outside of the city limits.

Defend Shanghai Settlement.

Other dispatches from China report the situation there as grave, and the cabinet is meeting this afternoon to consider action.

A general consultation of the representatives of the powers at Shanghai has resulted in a decision to defend the settlement against a Cantonese attack and to permit no repetition of the Hankow incidents, the foreign office announced.

The British government is still disposed to support the Chinese Nationalists, while exerting all of its powers to protect foreign lives and property.

British Cruisers at Malta.

MALTA, Jan. 17.—The British cruisers Frobisher, Boyle, Delhi, Dragon, and Danae, have arrived here enroute to China and are taking on stores.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 17—Notwithstanding the improvement of the situation in the vicinity of Shanghai as a result of General Sun Chuan-Gang's victory over the Cantonese forces at Ningpo, the foreign authorities today continued their perparations to defend the foreign settlement against a possible attack by the Nationalists.

The international settlement today was completely ringed with barbed wire entanglements, and the French concession, which lies between the international settlement and the Chinese city, was shut in behind huge steel gates which blocked all streets.

A message from Hankow said the H. M. S. Woodlark arrived there today bringing foreign refugees from Changsha. The Woodlark was threatened with bombardment by the Nationalists' shore batteries, but the commander of the British gunboat wirelessed to Eugene Chen, Nationalist foreign minister, who ordered the military authorities not to molest the Woodlark.

CHEVROLET CAR STOLEN, STRIPPED

A Chevrolet sedan, belonging to Robert Brown, 1642 Pennsylvania avenue, which was stolen while parked in front of the Tabernacle Church of Christ, Pennsylvania avenue, while Brown was attending services last night, was stripped and abandoned near the Township Line school in Madison township, police were advised today.

GEORGE YOUNG, 17, WHO IS RICHER TODAY BY $25,000, TELLS HOW HE WON 22-MILE CATALINA SWIM IN CHILLY WATERS

BY MILLER HOLLAND.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—Let George tell it.

George is the young man from Toronto, Canada, who was born away back in the year 1909 and who is richer today by some $25,000 for having negotiated 22 miles through the chilly waters of the Pacific ocean, from Avalon, Catalina island, to the mainland, to win the epic swim sponsored by William Wrigley.

George—young George—is the youth who made his way to California on a battered motorcycle, with his chum, Bill Hastings, to win the swimming classic from a field of the world's best swimmers.

And George is the young fellow who gave 25 pounds of flesh during the course of his watery trek.

All in all, George is quite a young man, and as such, worthy of being heard.

"I also sold everything of my own that I could in order to increase our capital.

"Hard luck rode with us on that one-lunged motorcycle. We were broke when we reached Chicago. We had bought the motorcycle with most of the money.

Wrigley Loaned Him $60.

"Broke in Chicago, we didn't know what to do. We decided to beard the lion in his own den. We went straight to Mr. Wrigley.

"We told Mr. Wrighey we were headed for California to try to win his money.

'You look like a couple of clean cut lads,' Mr. Wrigley told us, and he loaned us $60.

"From Chicago we went to Oklahoma. There we lost the motorcycle. We were flat on our feet, so we started to hoof it. From Oklahoma we walked all the way to California except for a couple of rides we picked up.

"Bill and I arrived in Los Angeles on December 3. We had less than 60 cents between us.

"I remembered Doc O'Bryne had come to Los Angeles. I remembered he had made swimming champions out of two of his girls.

"So we looked up Doc O'Byrne. He took me in hand and trained me. It was Doc who taught me how to do it."

"I just knew I'd do it," the lad confessed modestly. "I've been swimming since I was 3 years old up at my home in Toronto. And I've been swimming all my life in cold water in lake Ontario and other lakes up around home and Montreal. I guess it's the clean life I've lived and the constant thought of my mother that kept pushing me on.

"Bill Hastings, my chum, first heard about the channel swim last summer," Young continued. "He told me he thought I could make it and we decided to come to California and try it.

"I'd been doing quite a bit of swimming in Canada—swam 22 miles once—but I'd never done any competitive swimming.

"Well, Bill and I got and old motorcycle to make the trip. We had no money, but we managed to get some. Bill's mother financed us with $70 and my moth-

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

LONGWORTH'S CRUISER STAND MAY BE BID FOR PRESIDENCY

By CHARLES P. STEWART.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — Nick Longworth burned his boats when he joined the "big navy-ites" against President Coolidge a few days ago. For better or for worse, he's now a Republican candidate for president himself.

SPEAKER LONGWORTH

For a long time Republican aspirants have been squirming for a chance to announce themselves as such. They all want to be pushing their pre-convention campaigns but none has the nerve to say a word for himself with President Coolidge, so far as anybody knows, still in a receptive frame of mind toward another term.

It remained for Speaker Longworth to hit on a plan for turning the presidential spotlight on himself without actually proclaiming his candidacy in plain terms. Or perhaps Mrs. Longworth, whom everybody considers about the shrewdest politician in Washington, hit on the plan.

Or perhaps it wasn't a plan at all, but the speaker lined up with the "big navy-ites" against the President simply because he's a "big navy" man.

At any rate, the position Nick took started everybody talking about him as a presidential possibility. Mighty few can be found who don't think he deliberately counted on this effect.

When the "big navy-ites" demanded money for three new cruisers and the president said they couldn't have it with his consent it became evident that any Republican who voted in opposition to the chief executive's wishes was going to make himself notorious provided he was of sufficient political importance to be noticed under any circumstances.

Of course, the speaker of the house of representatives is of sufficient importance to attract attention, especially when he does anything unusual.

It's decidedly unusual for a speaker of the lower house of congress to vote counter to the expressed policy of a president and his own party.

In this instance it was interpreted as an intimation of Speaker Longworth's disagreement with the president, not only as to the three disputed cruisers, but also as to the president's whole economy program, for cruisers cost like sixty and that's just why the president objects to them except in blue-print form.

But the speaker didn't stop at voting against the president. He turned over his gavel to a substitute and made a pro-cruiser speech. This was rubbing it in.

If the "big navy" folk had won it would have been a great feather in Nick's cap.

The feather doesn't show to quite so much advantage in view of the fact that they lost. Still they lost by so narrow a margin that it's something of a feather anyway, though not quite of the first class.

The essential point is that the whole country has been saying ever since, "That obviously was Nick's bid for the Republican presidential nomination in 1928." Thus he has broadcast an announcement without actually announcing a thing.

It remains to be seen whether Nick's strategy will profit him or not.

He succeeded in doing what none of his rivals for President Coolidge's place in the White House has accomplished. Still, the president can't like it very well and presidents have ways of getting even for what they dislike.

Be that as it may, Nick is committed. He has asked, in effect, for the presidency and must take the consequences, whatever they may prove to be.

LEVY PROPOSED TO PAY TEACHERS'

An increase of 10 cents in the proposed district levy for teachers' salaries has been made in the bill being sponsored by the state department of education and George M. Ford, for the county unit plant. Under the original provisions of the proposed bill, the county would be authorized to lay a levy of 30 cents on the $100 for teachers' salaries and each district would have been authorized to lay a levy of 10 cents additional for salaries. However, protests were entered with the sponsors of the measure, who complained that 10 cents for the districts would be insufficient. Hence the proposed measure was amended making the district levy 20 cents. It will be introduced at this session of the legislature.

Cheap Labor to Give Vienna New Rank as Shipbuilding Center

VIENNA.—The first sea going vessel ever built in Austria has just been completed in Vienna. The ship is a freight ship built for a Bulgarian company for trade on the Black Sea. The vessel caused great interest in the city, thousands of people going down to the waterfront to watch it sail away to the faroff sea.

The company building the boat will seek contracts elsewhere. It hopes that the cheap labor costs will permit Austrians to bid successfully against foreign competition and to make Vienna a ship-building center.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Constipation! How to Keep Bowels Regular

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated men, women, children, and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even for those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN

TROUBLED FOR YEARS WITH INDIGESTION

Mr. Allan Small, of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I have always lived in fear of heart trouble—my father, as well as my mother's sister, died from this dreaded affliction when I was a child. As it was on both sides of my family and I had often heard it was hereditary, I lived in dread and fear.

"As I have had at intervals severe abdominal pains, heart-burn and pressure on the heart, I felt there was no relief so I became reconciled to the horrible truth I was doomed, nothing could be done and must await my time to go as my father and mother's sister. I never dreamed I might only have intestinal indigestion, and my trouble was sour and acid stomach, causing gas pressure on the heart. Thanks to a friend who suggested Carter's Little Liver Pills as a remedy for faulty intestinal elimination, I am now free from the dreaded fear and enjoy all around good health. Small pills, easy to take and relieve the bowels in a rational way, with pleasant after effects." For sale at all druggists.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN.

We rushed along the jetty, making a last desperate effort as we reached the end. The gangway of the steamboat was being drawn aboard, and her paddles were beginning to churn the waters of the lake. Officials barred the way, motioning us to stop.

"Jump," shouted Claypole without hesitation, and I leaped desperately.

Even at that moment I could not help noting the horrified expression of the magnificent personage (I will not call him a sailor) who was stowing the gangway. We fell together at his feet, and the first thing I saw on rising was two yards of elaborate uniform, surmounted by a face entirely possessed by astonishment and reprobation.

I was first up, and while Claypole still solved, muttering dark things on the deck, I looked around and saw Signor Marce focussing his one eye on the steamer, his fat body quivering with rage as he stood on the end of the jetty.

Then the jetty was blotted out by a small crowd of officials who appeared as if by magic and demanded explanations.

"Shades of William Tell,' said Claypole, who had just scrambled to his feet. "Reckon we've impeded some what the operations of this naval Power."

We expalined that we had been rowing on the lake, and had been upset and were anxious to return to Geneva without loss of time in order to obtain dry clothes.

I think they assumed that we were slightly drunk, for they ceased to reprove us, and after purchasing two first-class tickets we entered the saloon which fortunately proved to be almost empty. A waiter, genially inquisitive, supplied us with hot grog, but insisted on covering the plush seats with a dirty tablecloth before he would allow us to sit down.

Sinking back on the seat opposite Claypole, I had time to realize that I was desperately tired. I was wet to the skin, and I ached all over. My apperance was certainly deplorable. The mirror behind Claypoles head showed me a countenance white and disordered, the hair matted and clinging to the forehead. I had neither overcoat nor hat, my collar was sodden and grimy, and my shoes were oozing water.

A hand was laid on my knee.

Claypole's condition was just as bad, if not worse than mine. He had spent the best part of twenty-four hours in a filthy cellar, and, in addition to the fact that his clothes were soiled and shabby and the seat of his trousers torn he had been very roughly handled and his wrists and ankles had been bruised and cut by the ropes with which he had been bound.

Mentally I was in an even worse condition. Indeed the warm saloon and under the influence of the grog I fell into a kind of stupor. The bewildering events of the last few hours coupled with the severe physical shocks to which I had been subjected had driven me, I think, into a condition of mind not far removed from that experienced by men in trenches after a long and severe bombardment. Sitting in that steamboat, the water swishing past the portholes, and the steady throbbing of the engines behind me, I am not ashamed to own that I felt for the moment utterly helpless and indifferent, my only emotion being an occasional fit of acute panic. The adventure, which had seemed exciting and fantastic at the time, now appeared to me to be a grim, sordid and desperately dangerous business, into which fate had thrust me wholly against my will and utterly unprepared. I was afraid, horribly afraid. The sinister, smiling, impassive face of the little Japanese, the grotesque and vile countenance, with its hideous cross eyes, of Baldassare Marce, the dim features of their aiders and abettors, moved before my mind's eye in a grisly saraband. I leaned back in my seat and shivered uncontrollably.

A hand was laid on my kene.

"Buck up, friend," I heard a voice say. "You're about played out, nad I'm not feeling peppy myself. But there's some kick in both of us."

I opened my eyes and saw Claypole's eager gaze fixed on my face. When I remembered all he had gone through in the last twenty-four hours my own misfortunes appeared a featherweight in comparison, yet he was obviously in no way prepared to give way. The little man was clean grit all through, and, as I looked at him, something of his confidence gradually began to suppress the forebodings to which I had yielded.

"Meanwhile," he continued, "it's time I handed you over some posies for that most convenient arrival of yours in Count Emlico's dugout. Cyrus P. Claypole would be lying full 'five fathom deep at this moment if you hadn't contrived to keep that pressing appointment."

"Claypole," I said, "no more about that, if you please. I've come into this by chance, but henceforth you can count on me to help you all I know. I don't say I should have chosen this sort of holiday with my eyes open; but now I'm in this business, I mean to see it through."

"That's the spirit," said Claypole. "Beware of entrance to a quarrel, as Shakespeare says, but when you do jump in just to give the other fellow hell."

He thereupon beckoned to the waiter, and ordered two more grogs, at the same time inquiring when the boat was due to arrive at Geneva. We were informed that it would touch at several points on the lake before finally entering harbor, but it would arrive in another twenty minutes.

"They'll be waiting for us," I said, "on the landing stage. What are we to do?"

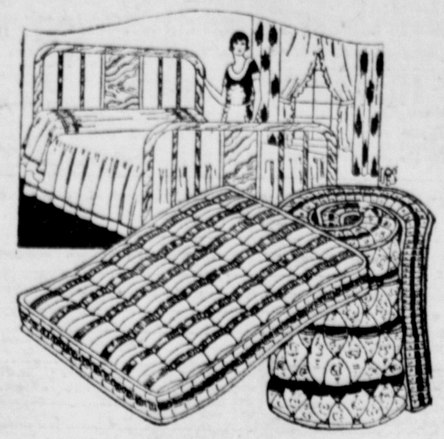

"We can fix that all right," returned Claypole cheerfully. "The respectable harbor of Geneva isnt at all the same proposition as a medieval oubliette. Helvica, complete with trident, will be watching over these homeless waifs, and those guys will have to beat it when I get talking to the Genevese police."

"Meantime," he continued, "just tell me how they got hold of you."

I spent the rest of the journey telling him the complete story of my adventures since arriving at Geneva.

Victory For Clean Living

George Younf, 17, Canadian, is the conqueror of the Catalina channel and winner of $25,000 in the 22-mile swim sponsored by William Wrigley, Jr.

Forced to ride to the coast in the side care of a second hand motorcycle for lack of funds in order to compete in the world's greatest long distance swim between the island and California mainland, he will return in a Pullman car to his Toronto home because of observance of common sense rules of living and a mother's faith in her boy.

Ninety-five other swimmers, including five women, several of whom had won honors in other great aquatic events, entered the competition, but failed. The 17-year-old boy, the darkest of dark horses, alone finished.

According to press reports of the event, which won him wealth and fame, young Young, whose name is legion in Canada, where he has shattered almost every swimming record, was all confidence from start to finish of the 22-mile contest. Not once did he falter and not once did he become discouraged. Never did he feel he was menaced by any other swimmer, not even Norman Ross, Chicago, holder of international swimming records.

And his victory proves that clean living pays in aquatic events as well as everything else worth while.

The Spy Scare

Europe is reported to be stirred by an espionage scare, the first international alarm of the sort since the end of the World War. As must be in such a state of affairs, rumors fly about faster than facts and in considerably greater numbers. Foreigners in every country are kept under police surveillance and even American residents in Great Britain must carry identity cards. Scotland Yard is said to know almost the hourly movements of every suspected foreigner in the country. Other nations are equally vigilant.

This is one of those foolish performances which ought to make self-respecting, civilized, friendly nations a little ashamed of themselves. There can't be so very many important military, chemical or even diplomatic secrets in these days that are worth much spying after. Specialists and experts in one country can usually hit upon inventions, discoveries and plans just as valuable as the ones so guarded by others. It would be much safer for all concerned to be a little more frank and generous about such matters instead of more secretive. The fears and suspicions engendered by secrecy and the resulting espionage scares are far more deadly than the secrets themselves.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that Great Britain and the United States have a gentleman's agreement to ask each other outright for any desired information, military or otherwise. It is a small step toward international frankness, but a good one.

The Coasting Cop

One of the northern cities was having its first real snow of the season. A woman doing her marketing heard the clang of the police emergency wagon as she approached a cross street which had a gentle slope. Seeing the wagon about to stop, she lingered a moment, as every curious and adventure-loving citizen does, to see what was going to happen. A raid? A bandit chase? A burglary call?

The wagon discharged one cop and sped on down the main highway with the others. This cop moved briskly to the curb, took two sawhorses and a rope and arranged them to block traffic from going down the street. From nowhere appeared a dozen kids with sleds. The littler ones grabbing him about the knees as they passed him, the older ones yelled cheery hellos. Other kids appeared with sleds, and the sport was on.

The woman moved on with her head somehow held a little higher, and her eyes wet.

It was like the sudden raising of the flag.

Hidden Treasure

A treasure of $50,000,000 is said to be lying at the bottom of the sea, in Greek waters, and the Greek government is inviting outsiders to come and fish for it on shares. The Greeks would be satisfied with one-third. It is most gold lost when an allied fleet, fighting for Greek independence, sunk the Turkish flagship in 1827.

All right, go and look for it if you like. Treasure-seeking is a legitimate sport, in any of the seven seas. But why not look for treasure nearer home?

There is treasure worth many times $50,000,000 lying unsought in the attics, walls, floors and cellars of American homes—money, jewelry, books, furniture and what not, mislaid or stored away and forgotten. In any house lived in for more than a dozen years, it's incredible what a systematic search will discover.

But not in a flat. It's useless hunting treasure in an apartment house.

Men see some hope for women after all, since they're giving up unbuckled galoshes.

What the cotton belt needs is a revival of Civil War dress styles.

My Favorite Stories

PAST TENSE BUT PRESENT MOOD.

There is a writer in New York who never does today what he can put off until tomorrow. All the same, among the editors, his output is always in demand. Some time ago, in a careless moment, he took on a contract to furnish a given number of humorous articles at stated intervals for publication in a popular periodical.

One day about noon-time two of us dropped in on him at his office. We found him humped up at his desk, his coat off, his sleeves rolled up, and his pen racing across the paper.

"Come on, old man," I said, "we want to take you out to lunch with us."

"Can't go to lunch," he said. "Can't quit the job. You know how I am—if I go out to lunch with you fellows I won't get back for two or three days. I'm going to send a boy to bring me in a cup of coffee and a sandwich.

"Can't you spare even half an hour to join us?" asked my companion.

"No, I can't. I tell you, I can't leave here until this job I'm working on now is done. There's a time limit on it and I'm under a solemn pledge to stick here until the thing is finished."

"A time limit, eh?" one of us said; "well, under your promise, what is the very latest possible date when you must deliver the manuscript?"

He glanced at the calender above his desk:

"A week ago last Tuesday," he said.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Diary of a modern Pepys: Up and glad to be at my desk again and with a swoop cleared away an accumulation of weeks, doubtless sacrificing papers I desire to keep and letters that should be answered. So in light spirits to breakfast with my mother-in-alw, taking her two books.

Then to walk among the tenements of Avenue A. with Lisle Bell and in a pawn shop bartered for an odd key ring, albeit I have not carried a key in years. And a drunken man lurched against a lady with an apology and she said, "I excuse your drunkenness, but not your manners," as fine retort as ever I heard.

So home and wrote a magazine piece before dinner and with great ease, too, so heartening me I decided to scribble late into the night but after dinner could not fashion a line. So to bed.

It was at one of those gay balls starting at midnight and ending when many fall with heads tucked under their wings or something. In the midst of a dance a whistle blew and the orchestra stopped. Flash light photographers raised their hands and lifted flashes. At least thirty women screamed and about forty couples raced from the floor in a panic. They were in the wrong place with the wrong escorts. It is tres dificile to laugh off a photograph in a divorce court.

Something else about which to worry. Those young blades who keep pace with the latest cuts in dinner jacket lapels, the angle of hats and the wrist flair of gloves have a lot of useless dress shirts on hand. The three stud shirts were supplanted by those with one buttonhole a year ago and now the last word is two buttonholes close together.

A popular young actor who popped up from the East Side with slight schooling has this at the top of his letterheads: "I don't give a hang for a man that can spell a word only one way"—Mark Twain. And he follows Mark's advice.

And James Thornton's private stationery now reads: "Third year with the Volstead act."

In other days Jim Thornton was a consistent imbiber — the old type of talented, unreliable Thespian. He would work a few weeks and daily among the bright lights. His faithful wife Bonnie clung to him through the turbulent years and James and Bonnie Thornton made thousands laugh. After her passing he was inconsolable and drank deeper. Then suddenly he turned from the cup, and in his advancing age is making audiences laugh with the old time gusto.

It used to be an idea drink went with genius and stage stars often bragged of holding the curtain until their heads cleared and then giving amazing performances. It was said Nat Goodwin gave his finest presentations with a quart of chablis tucked under his belt. Beerbohm Tree was also reputed to be at his best three sheets in the wind—although this was an infrequent occurrence. Two celebrated female stars also had the reputation of indulging for their most difficult roles. Perhaps these stories are exaggerations. Anyway the foremost stars of the present day are largely teetotalers. Only one star—a woman—is an inebriate and her swan song has been sung. Every effort in the past few years has met with pathetic failure.

A musical comedy actress of promise not so long ago faced a mangerial ultimatum. She must take the pledge or face dismissal, despite her run of the play contract. She had been hiccuping too much in public. She asked for a week's lay off and went to an isolated Long Island village. She came back resolved to permanent sobriety and for four months has kept the pact. She has told friends that when consumed by the physical craving for liquor she dons walking togs and walks along strange streets until exhausted.

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Where Nature Will Be Natural.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—There is to be in at least one spot in the United States an example of nature undefiled or untrammeled in any fashion. An area of approximately seven square miles has just been set aside in the high Sierra country of Yosemite National Park, California, for this purpose. Here the flora and fauna will always be left in their primitive state and this spot will be a complete and perpetual reservation.

Although all national parks are created for the primary purpose of preserving for all time the natural features contained therein, including the flora and fauna, developments necessary for the use and enjoyment of the park by the traveling public are permitted.

In this area just set aside, however, domestic animals, camping, and fishing will be excluded. Special permission will be required for admittance to this reserve and this will be granted only for the purpose of scientific studies or in connection with the administration of the area. The wild animals and plants there will not be removed or interfered with in any way unless the natural balance is seriously disturbed by some invasion from the outside.

The main idea of setting aside this perpetual reserve is to furnish an opportunity for the study of plants, animals, and geologic and other natural features under primitive conditions. It is believed that it will be especially interesting to note the natural succession of events such as changes in animal and plant life. This reservation will furnish to future generations a sample of what might be found in other places if man had not interfered with the workings of nature.

This reservation is at the present time in an absolutely wild state and there is no roadway nor well-defined trail leading to it. Despite this fact it is not unduly difficult of access. Suggestion has been made that this era be protected by a strong wire fence, but this has been deemed impractical since the heavy winter snows would break down such a fence. During the summer months, or tourist season, however, special inspection will be given it by the ranger force of the park.

A Particularly Suitable Spot.

The spot is considered particularly suitable for such a protected reservation for several reasons. It is located on part of the crest of the Sierra Nevada range with picturesque alpine peaks and cirques to the north. There is a general southly exposure with splendid outlooks to Cathedral Range. The lower slopes are well forested with a too-uniform stand of lodge-pole pine, but if given absolute protection may swing back ultimately to other types of forest. There is a small amount of hemlock and along the upper limits of the forest is the usual fringe of white bark pine.

There are extensive meadows with a profusion of wild flowers, and the flora changes as stream banks are approached. There are small lakes and ponds bordered with bogs which make ideal habitats for species of plants and animals not found elsewhere. The upper slopes exhibit characteristic chaparral and the number of species of herbaceous flowering perennials becomes greater toward the summits where rich alpine flora is found. Before the creation of Yosemite National Park this area was overgrazed by sheep, but this is true of practically all of the high Sierra Nevadas.

Another thing which makes this area especially advantageous is the fact that there is little likelihood of its ever being demanded by commercial or other economic interests of the future. It does not appear that the march of progress will ever interfere with its remaining actually a complete and perpetual reservation.

The suggestion of setting aside such an area came from Dr. John C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institution of Washington. He put the idea before Stephen T. Mather, director of the National Parks of the United States, and when a meeting of the superintendents of the various national parks was held in Washington the matter was discussed. As a result this area of seven square miles of high Sierra country in Yosemite National Park was set aside.

While it is said that there is no exact precedent for such a project it has been approximated by some of the wild life reserves and certain wild flower preserves, and in the redwood districts. In each of these, however, the object is different.

Same Thing Done Abroad.

In Europe the idea is being carried out by several countries. The national parks of Sweden and of Switzerland are excellent examples of such complete reservations. While not so complete, a similar plan is being followed in Bavaria and in the forest of Fontainebleau, France. Czechoslovakia has established a reservation with similar objects. This abuts on one which is to be set aside by Poland. There appears to be an increasing interest in establishing reservations where nature may be studied in as unmodified a state as possible.

The people as a whole have been

I have found your Lucky Strike Cigarettes very agreeable. They do not hurt my throat in the least and are very soothing to my voice.

J. Caillaux

When Caillaux Speaks, the World Listens

His clear voice is inspiring, his throat ever in perfect condition

AS one of the outstanding public men in France, Joseph Caillaux depends upon the power of oratory in advocating his ideas and in swaying his colleagues. To safeguard his voice is his constant aim. His favorite among cigarettes is Lucky Strikes, both for finer flavor and throat protection.

Lucky Strikes have become the favorites of men whose priceless voices thrill their audiences, as they have with the millions because, first, they afford greater enjoyment and second, they are certain not to irritate even the most sensitive throat.

The world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended, give them their richer flavor.

But in addition, a costly extra process—toasting for 45 minutes—develops the hidden flavors of the choicest tobaccos and at the same time removes all "bite" and harshness.

Smoke Lucky Strikes. They give added pleasure—you'll like them.

Hickville's Comedy Four On Program at Ceramic

Vaudeville Singing Quartet Appear With Paramount Picture, "The Great Gatsby."

Hickville's Comedy Four, vaudeville's biggest singing quartet, will appear in "country capers' as the feature act in connection with the mation picture, "The Great Gatsby," at the Ceramic theatre tonight and Tuesday.

"The Great Gatsby," a Paramount production, is a brilliant social satire focused on the tragedy of a fascinating character, Jay Gatsby--soldier, mysterious gentleman and lover.

The picture starts with a beautiful love scene between Gatsby and Daisy Fay, the Louisville belle. War spirit is running high and Daisy promises to wait for her soldier hero's return.

A resplendent fete at Gatsby's home is impressive in sweep, daring in action and a riot of life and color. The bathing pool with its silk-clad swimmers adds to the gay revelry.

While Daisy is having tea with Gatsby her husband is meeting Myrtle Wilson, the garage-keeper's wife, at the Harlem apartment of Bert, a street car conductor. An altercation arises, indicating that their liason is due for a break.

There's a tense scene when the two men, each representing a dominating force in Daisy's life, come to grips. Gatsby realizes that the path he has followed to attain hi heart's desire lacks a stable foundation. Lois Wilson does the best acting of her career in this poignant episode.

The wild night ride which ends in a tragedy is executed with Brenon's finest suggestive realism.

Wilson's scene with his faithless wife give one a graphic delineation of a jealousy-ridden weakling tottering on the brink of insanity.

There's real drama contained in that sequence when Nick Carraway finally recognizes the heroic qualities of his mysterious friend. The lonely death of Gatsby and his pathetic funeral—a hearse and one mourner—will bring tears to the eyes of the most hardened moviegoer.

The work of the individual artists cannot be passed over. Warner Baxter, playing the title role, rises to heights which he has never before reached. Lois Wilson's work is mentioned elsewhere. Neil Hamilton gives his usual sincere portrayal and Georgia Hale reveals herself an apt tragedienne.

So much for the featured players. But the rest of the cast cannot be lightly dismissed. William Powell, the garage-keeper, contributes an excellent characterization. Hale Hamilton, quasi-heavy, wins honors as the blustering, philandering husband. Carmelita Geraghty, one of the most talented of the screen's younger generation, makes her Paramount debut in "The Great Gatsby.

Changes Proposed In Constitution of Irish Free State

DUBLIN.—A committee appointed to consider proposed changes in the Constitution of the Irish Free State has made very mild suggestions in regard to alteration.

Its main recommendations are four in number:

That the chairman of Dail Eirann should be returned unopposed at the next general election.

Abolition of a public holiday on election day, but more convenient polling hours.

Increase of the maximum life of the Dail from four to six years.

Increase of the maximum membership of the executive council from seven to twelve.

A majority of the committee also agreed that the chairman of the Dail should keep himself clear from politics during his term of office.

The proposals are likely to be accepted.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years

STAGE SET FOR CHAPLIN-LITA GREY DIVORCE CASE

FILM COMEDY KING'S LAWYERS FIGHT ALIMONY

Samuel Goldwyn is Served With Court Summons.

FIRST ROUND

Preliminary Hearing May Last for Several Days.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—The stage was all set here today for the preliminary skirmish in the Charles Chaplin-Lita Grey Chaplin divorce controversy.

Attorneys representing the famous comedian were to appear in court during the day to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for Chaplin's affairs and why he should not pay alimony and counsel fees to his 18-year-old wife.

Outstanding developments in the case during the last twenty-four hours were the service of a court summons on Samuel Goldwyn, motion picture producer, and the issuance of a statement by Chaplin's attorneys in which they rapped "attempts to try the case out of court."

Goldwyn, who was directed to appear in court today, was said to be one of the two defendants referred to in Mrs. Chaplin's complaint as John Doe. the other was Loyd Wright, attorney for Chaplin.

Mrs. Chaplin believes they had control of some of her husband's property.

Scheduled to start today, the preliminary hearing may last for several days. A continuance may be asked by the defense on the ground that Gavin McNab, San Francisco attorney, had just been retained and had not had time enough to become familiar with the case.

Scarlet Fever Warning

Hence the necessity of thorough disinfection of the discharges of the nose, throat, mouth and ear.

"The first symptoms of scarlet fever may be headache, fever, vomiting and sore throat. After these symptoms have persisted for 24 to 48 hours a scarlet rash appears over the body. After a variable time the rash fades and the skin begins to peel off in fine flakes. There are many forms of scarlet fever, but all are equally dangerous to the public for a fatal attack may result from contact with the mildest case. In epidemics some cases occur without a rash. When one case follows another in a community it is convincing evidence that someone is careless in taking the necessary measures to prevent its spread.

"When the disease develops, immediately have the patient isolated in a room and allow no one save the physician to visit him. The room should be furnished only with the absolute necessities. Choose a large airy room with plenty of fresh air and sunshine. The house is quarantined and no one can enter or leave the house except the physician and the bread-winner by special permission of the board of health. All utensils used by the patient should be kept apart from those of the rest of the family. All linen and clothing should be such that can be soaked in disinfectant solution and boiled. No article from the sick room should be admitted to the general family wash until it has been thoroughly disinfected for an hour and then boiled."

How to Restore Lost Appetite

And Build Firm, Solid Flesh, And Renew Vitality

Thousands of men and women lack appetite and are "finicky" about what they eat and so find their energy and vigor slipping away. Thousands of other men and women eat heartily, even to the point of "stuffing" yet they remain thin and can't seem to get any "pep."

Such conditions are due to faulty nutritive processes. Lack of stimulation to the mouth and stomach glands is the real cause. We all need better digestion of our food. Scientists are telling us about this as announced nearly every day in the newspapers and medical journals.

If your appetite is poor or if you eat a lot and you still remain thin and lacking in vitality, try this—a good stimulant three times a day with your meals. You will be satisfied with the improvement and results will come quickly.

A remarkable stimulant-tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic.' Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.

$700 PLEDGED TO MEET COST OF TABERNACLE

East End Church Members Respond to Evangelists' Appeal.

OCCUPY BUILDING

Fife Brothers Assist in Dedication of House of Worship.

Nearly $700, or approximately $200 in excess of the cost of the addition, was pledged Sunday afternoon at the dedication ceremonies of the Second Church of Christ tabernacle, Pennsylvania avenue, East End. The cost of the tabernacle, erected with volunteer labor last Thursday, was about $500.

Plan of the evangelists, Dr. Clyde Lee and Bob Fife, "log cabin boys from Kentucky," who are holding a series of services at the church, is to liquidate a debt of a little more than $500 which is also on the main church building. These pledges are payable in monthly installments beginning March 1, 1927.

The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Dr. Fife, head of the evangelistic party. The audience practically filled the building, which has a seating capacity of more than 800 persons. Rev. C. Melvin McKay, pastor, offered the opening prayer, while Bob Fife conducted the singing and rendered selections on a hand saw and with a trombone.

The day's work came to a climax last night when Dr. Fife preached a sermon on "What Shall I Do With Jesus?"

Among the visitors was a delegation of Klansmen in full regalia.

Tonight is student night at the tabernacle. The sermon on "Bobbed Hair" will be delivered Tuesday night. On Wednesday night, the prize fight sermon will be given. The evangelists will speak, sing and play at a W. C. T. U. meeting Thursday afternoon in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Thursday evening, they will be guests at the Kiwanis club dinner and later will conduct Lodge night services in the tabernacle. Friday night is Pottery night. Saturday is rest day.

George Young

er gave us $80—all the money she had. My mother's a widow you know, but she had faith in me and knew it was a paying investment.

Widowed Mother Happy.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17.—"My goodness, isn't it lovely," today declared Mrs. Jane Young, widowed mother of 17-year-old George Young, who paddled his way to victory and a $25,000 prize in the Catalina channel swim in California spurred on by his desire to end the hardship of his parent.

It was for this love of his mother that youthful George risked his amateur standing to invest his scanty funds in a motorcycle to carry him from Canada to California for a try at a small fortune.

When the motorcycle caught on fire after George got beyond Chicago, he continued the trip by train, on foot, and by "hitches."

"George has always been a good son, light hearted but never frivolous," said Mrs. Young today. "He has always been industrious and studied hard in school."

Mrs. Young said her son liked particularly to eat porterhouse steak and drink tea. He is a strong eater, she said.

"Has George a sweetheart?"

"Goodness gracious," Mrs. Young replied. "He is much too young to think of girls. He hasn't any sweetheart that I know of and I don't want him to think seriously of marrying for quite a while yet."

Mrs. Young explained that when she was left alone with George when her husband died she made her living by cooking and waiting on a table. She said she wasn't "a bit ashamed of it."

When George was 16 his mother suffered an injury and he was forced to quit school and go to work.

John W. Crawford Is Held at Midland On Forgery Charge

John W. Crawford, 24, East Liverpool, is being held by Beaver county officials today for arraignment before Justice of the Peace David Stewart at Beaver, upon a charge of forgery, following his return from Eureka, California, where he was arrested about 10 days ago.

Crawford, brought to the Beaver county seat by District Attorney J. Blaine McGoun and County Detective Daniel M. Baker, Saturday night, is alleged to have cashed a check for $1,500 at the Midland Savings & Trust Company, Midland, on December 6, 1926. The check was drawn upon an East Liverpool bank.

He is alleged to have accepted $400 in cash and placed the remaining $1,100 in a checking account. The check was returned to the Midland bank a few days later marked "forgery."

Whereabouts of the young man remained a mystery until about two weeks ago when bank officials received a telegram from him at Eureka, Cal., asking that he be telegraphed $1,000 of the $1,100 which was on deposit. Frank M. Potts, assistant cashier, signed an affidavit in Justice Stewart's court on December 30, last charging forgery.

79 MEN HEAR WALTER GOODE

Youngstown Man Speaks at Sunday Club Meeting.

Seventy-nine young men attended the initial meeting of the Sunday Afternoon club in the banquet hall of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

Walter S. Goode, manager of the Central Square garage, Youngstown, spoke on the subject, "Facing the Facts." Music was rendered by the Presbyterian male quartet.

In part Goode said:

"Youth is being attacked in this day and age but the present generation is the best of all times. A prophet once said, 'the world must turn from a neighborhood to a brotherhood.' When the great war began people said that the Christian religion had failed but it really never had been nationally tried before.

"Religion is what you do, not what you don't do. It is a positive, not a negative quantity. Christianity is to show mercy, be just, kind and humble. Lloyd George, English premier, once said, 'Either the religion of Christ or chaos.' The act of the good Samaritan was a religious Christ-like act. Let self be slain, help me to love for others. When American people were killed in the Boxer uprising and the Chinese government paid a $10,000,000 indemnity, it was returned with the message that they send their brightest young men and women to America to be educated."

LESS TENSION IN NICARAGUA

Mexico Situation, Too, Improving, Washington Reports.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. — The extreme tenseness that has marked the Mexican-Nicaraguan situation since American warships and marines were concentrated in Caribbean waters appeared lessening today.

Both in Washington and in Latin-America strongly backed movements are afoot to find a solution of the difficulties that will restore military peace in Nicaragua, and political peace in Washington.

STATE SCHOOL WORK DETAILED

Superintendent Ford in Statement Replies to Adverse Criticism.

The people of West Virginia are receiving good value for their "educational dollars," apart from any consideration of the advancement in the intellectual and moral capacities of the state's 400,000 boys and girls who are being trained for future citizenship, it is asserted by George M. Ford, superintendent of schools.

The statement was made with reference to some adverse criticism of the heavy increase in school expenditures from 1915 to 1926. This criticism Ford attributed to a superficial knowledge of the subject and a consequent hasty conclusion.

The purchasing power of the dollar figured conspicuously in the increased outlay for successive years of the ten-year period. The 1915 dollar would purchase as much school education as $1.61 would in 1925. Therefore, while the elementary and high schools cost the taxpayers $23,362,486 in 1925 and only $6,984,350 in 1915 it would have required, $11,225,081 in 1925 to carry on the education program of 1915.

This is the major but by no means the only thing to explain the big cost jump for the decade. The school program for 1925 was a fifty per cent enlargement over the program for 1915, due to actual increase in daily attendance. This increased attendance accounts for $5,632,540 of the increase in expenses.

Then, too, during the ten years the school term has been increased from 137 to 167 days, or practically twenty per cent. This increase in the length of the term accounts for $2,379,524. "These are accumulating and not compensating factors and consequently should be added," Superintendent Ford explains.

The foregoing items of increased expense accounts for $22,710,402 of the remaining $23,362,486 spent in 1925. Of the remaining $652,084, the sum of $202, 443 is accounted for in a duplication of the amount assigned to the transfer of pupils, the corresponding item in 1915 being almost negligible. The remaining $449,641 is more than accounted for by the difference in building costs. In 1915 $1,715,408 of the school cost was for school buildings. Five years later the same type of building cost three times as much.

Mr. Ford also submits that in an analysis of cost figures due importance should be given to the comparative quality of the education. The two most prominent factors in this regard are the teacher and the building and equipment. The education department computes the per cent of increase in school expenses due to improved qualifications of teachers to be twelve per cent. This does not mean that the salary increases have been twelve per cent, but that on the same salary schedule, the one now in use, the teachers received twelve per cent more than the same number of teachers in 1915.

HEALTH BOARD ISSUES WARNING

The state health department has just issued a warning to all parents to place special guards around their children during these first three months of the year, as these are dangerous days. This warning is based on the figures for 1925, the latest available ones, which show that 947 of West Virginia's children under seven years of age died of respirator diseases, such as pneumonia, influenza, whooping cough, etc., the greatest number of deaths occurring in January, February and March.

Don't treat it lightly. Disease germs always find a fine breeding place in the raw, sensitive membranes—they multiply rapidly, infect the throat tissues, and unless checked, may cause a dangerous inflammation.

Act at once, at the first sign of a cough, and take PERTUSSIN before it is too late. Prevent this inflammation from spreading into the "Danger Zone" and developing into Bronchitis—Pneumonia—or worse complications.

PERTUSSIN brings healing comfort and helps to free you of sticky, germ-laden mucus that clogs the air passages. For safety's sake, get a bottle today. If your cough has already settled in the "danger zone", you should see your Doctor.

Note—PERTUSSIN is a simple herbal remedy free from dope, and has been prescribed by physicians for 20 years.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

British Government Introduces New Kick Into "State Beer"

CARLISLE, Eng.—The British government has introduced a new kick into the "State Beer" which it brews for its semi-teetotal town of Carlisle. It is known as "winter ale." The idea is that in cold weather a working man needs a drink possessing 'body." So strong is this new ale that the managers of the state inns have been forbidden to serve it in larger quantities than a single glass. The government price is twelve cents per glass.

Rheumatism can't be rubbed away

Are you one of those unfortunates who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered from rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried most everything. Went to Hot Springs and finally I decided to try S. S. S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I also had a breaking out on my hands for years that nothing would heal, but now this has disappeared, and I am sure that it was S. S. S. which removed the cause. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S. S. S. is the best." Carl C. Campbell, 115 West Main street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this famous home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. It tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

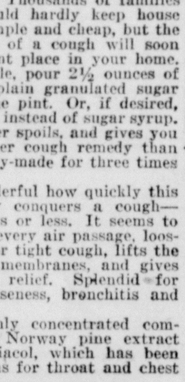

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, which has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LILLIAN GISH AT AMERICAN

Plays Role of Hester Prynne in "Scarlet Letter."

Lillian Gish, celebrated star of the screen, has just fulfilled ai ambition of some six years in playing the role of "Hester Prynne" in Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic romance, "The Scarlet Letter." For six years the actress has mentally rehearsed the role, hoping that some day she would be given an opportunity to play the dramatic heroine of one of the most famous romances in the world.

The fulfillment of her ambition will be seen commencing today at the American theatre when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will present her in the role.

Miss Gish regards the role as a tribute to her ancestors, as she is directly descended from one of the original Puritan families. In fact, the family home at Deerfield, Mass., is being maintained by the Daughters of the Revolution as a museum where the ancient furnishings and possessions of the actress' ancestors are on public display. Miss Gish is herself a member of the D. A. R.

The new picture is the dramatic story of a Puritan woman who carried a badge of shame through life to shield the man she loved. It was staged on a lavish scale, with a huge cast of celebrities, nearly a thousand men, women and children in the larger scenes, and in elaborate settings. An entire replica of America's first Puritan village was constructed for the big production, her second Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "La Boheme" being the first.

Victor Seastrom, famous as the director of "He Who Gets Slapped" and "The Tower of Lies," directed the production. Lars Hanson, famous Swedish star, makes his American debut as her leading man, and Henry B. Walthall, Karl Dane, Marcelle Corday, William H. Tooker, Jules Cowles, Fred Herzog and other notable players appear in supporting roles.

JOHNSON GOES ON GRILL AT LANDIS' MEETING NEXT MONDAY

BASEBALL CZAR PLANNING MOVE TO END SCANDAL

Will Meet Under Cover Efforts to Embarrass His Regime.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Scandal and backstairs whispering, for which the off season of 1926-27 will go down in the books at the most notorious in histcry, will cease abruptly with the holding of Judge Landis' special American League meeting in Chicago on January 24. The writer learned today that Landis, thoroughly fed up with unde cover efforts to embarrass his regime, will force a cessation of the guerilla warfare now in progress even if he has to go so far as to drive Ban Johnson out of baseball.

He can go further than that, if the spirit moves him, for his contract gives him arbitrary power in the matter of dismissing any official whose acts or utterances are deemed inimical to the good of the game.

He has so deemed the utterances, attributed to "a well-known official," that neither Cobb nor Speaker ever again will be permitted to play in the American League, that statement, if proved to be correct, will completely nullify the effect Landis hoped to create by failing to go on record as to the guilt or innocence of the two stars. It, in fact, tactily declared the American League's belief in their guilt.

Landis suspects that Johnson is the author of the statement just as he is morally certain that his arch-rival jockeyed the appearances of Swede Risberg and Chick Gandil at the last scandal hearing. He even believes that Johnson inspired these two worthies to reopen the question of whether the Detroit-Chicago fund of 1917 was a bribe or a gift, knowing that this would place Landis in a tough spot.

That, at least, was the general impression around the hearing particularly since some of Johnson's spokesmen were very active in behalf of Risberg and Gandil at the time.

Now, however, it will be Johnson's turn on the griddle. Landis has called his special meeting with but one idea in mind; to find out whether the American league held out on him when it turned over the Cobb-Speaker case to him for a decision or whether Johnson merely is popping off. Either way, Johnson is due to be abashed.

If it was a pop-off, then Landis will be in a position to demand Johnson's scalp on the ground that it endangered not only the judge's position but that of baseball as well. If it was a hold-out, then Johnson, having had the early investigation in direct charge, will be held culpable again.

It would not be surprising, on the whole, if Landis threatened to retire from office, just as he did several years ago when Johnson openly attacked him. Baseball felt it couldn't afford to let the judge get away at that time. Can it afford it any more at this time? When you have mastered that one, you will know just what a trying afternoon of it Ban Johnson will put in next Monday.

KLINCK'S TEAMS LOSE DOUBLE

Girls' and Boys' Squads Lose to Mingo Passers.

Wellsville high school passers dropped both ends of a double bill to Mingo Junction teams Saturday night on the Wellsville high school court.

Klinck's boys finished second to the Jefferson countians in 19-15 clash, and the Orange and Black sextet lost a 30 to 17 verdict.

Five field goals by Center Shaffer of the Mingo quintet doomed the Wellsville lads. Shaffer was the only member of the visiting combine successful in penetrating the Terry-Brannan-Dickey defense.

Calhoun, playing a forward position instead of his customary post at center, registered three field goals and dropped in two fouls on the side.

Miss Connor led the Wellsville girls with three field goals, with Wickline and Irwin getting two apiece. Six by Forward Simmens, of Mingo, however, proved too big a handicap.

Rex McConnell's Canton Rogers Jewelers, formerly the Canton Jack Art Jewelers, finished ahead on the long end of a 55-37 count against Tom Carty ight's Salineville county league team Saturday at Salineville.

Forward Stahler led the Canton combine in the matter of scoring with eight field goals and five fouls for a total of 21 points. Grundy, center, starred for Salineville. He dropped in five double deckers and a trio of fouls.

The passwork of the Jewelers was too much for the Salineville aggregation.

WILDE'S FIVE COPS ANOTHER

Defeat Salineville On Chester Court.

CHESTER and Salineville high school basketballers divided honors in a double header Saturday night on the West Virginia court, Wilde's boys beating the opposition to the wire at a 33-21 gait, while the girls were losing, 33 to 7.

The Chester quint had the edge most of the way, the visitors doing very little against the five-man defense. Salineville's scoring attempts came mostly from back court, few of which variety found the spot. On the other hand the West Virginians played short passes to the basket, attempting the long distance route infrequently.

The Chesterites got away to a commanding start in the third period, the visitors being played off their feet during the half. Miller put Chester in the lead with a foul goal. Bartley got through the Salineville defense for another field goal. Hindes dropped a nice one in from midfloor and Simcox followed with another double decker. Kimble contributed a free throw and Woodward obtained Salineville's only point of the period from the free line. Simcox's basket made the count 25 to 16 at the end of the quarter.

All of the Chester squad played nice basketball, Simcox and Bartley being the scoring stars, the former's all around playing being worthy of special mention. Lange, Smith and Woodward were the Salineville luminaries.

Salineville girls led at the first quarter, 6 to 2, and ran it up to 14-2 at the half. The last two quarters were similar to the first. Woodward, Allmon and Lance were the chief performers for the victors, Allmon dropping in eight field goals and two fouls. Skinner, Gibbs and Neal played well for the losers.

JUST KICKS 'EM OUT AND KEEPS ON TO FINISH

Cramps Fail to Stop Young Canadian Swimmer.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17. — George Young, of Toronto, Canada, was taking things easy today—and well he might. For this 17-year-old Canadian youth has made swimming history.

He was the only entry to finish the gruelling aquatic grind from Avalon, Catalina Island, to the mainland near Point Vincente, a distance of 22 miles.

More than 100 swimmers started. Covered with grease, begoggled, determination in their hearts, these sturdy men and women plunged into the chilly waters of the Pacific shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

One by one they dropped out, some exhausted, some stricken by cramps, some just plainly discouraged and some sea sick.

But George Young was not one of these. Twice he was cramp-stricken but, as he put it, "I rolled over on my back and kicked 'em out."

The second time he "kicked 'em out," he "kicked 'em out" for good. After that he never faltered, keeping up his powerful stroke until he was a short distance from the shore. There, when he ran into kelp beds after being in the water for more than 15 hours, he was forced to put on added power. He had it in reserve. He cleaved his way through the kelp and a few moments later he was on shore. He made the swim in 15 hours 48 minutes and 35 seconds.

For this stupendous feat, the Toronto boy will get the $25,000 offered by William Wrigley, Chicago chewing gum magnate who promoted the swim. Which is a pretty fair fortune for a young man who landed in Long Beach about two weeks ago with 60 cents in his pockets.

Young, although youthful in years, is certainly a man in size and strength. He weighs 186 pounds and is extremely muscular. He was a veritable "dark horse" in these parts, but in Canada his prowess is well known. There he is long-distance champion.

The winner of the race finished in excellent condition. Today he is resting at Santa Monica. He shows no ill effects; he is not exhausted. But it is doubtful if there is a more exuberant person on the continent.

There were other swimmers who performed notable feats. There was Norman Ross, of Chicago, a favorite to win the event, who battled to within a mile of shore; there was Peter Mayer, of Cincinnati, still four and a half miles out when he was told that Young had finished, and there were those two stalwart and courageous women, Margaret Hauser, of Long Beach, and Martha Steager, of Portland.

These two women were taken out of the water shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday morning. They had been swimming for about 19 hours and 30 minutes. Neither finished, but each will get $2,500 from Wrigley.

Three more famous sisters of the sea, Mrs. Schramm, of New York, Mrs. Schommell and Clarabelle Barrett, also of New York, had long since given up the struggle.

The temperature of the water forced most of the men swimmers to abandon the race. Sullivan, of Lowell, Mass.; Toth, of Long Beach, Calif., both conquerors of the English channel; Creegan, of Paterson, N. J.; Purchell, of San Francisco—they all went the same way. While they were being hauled from the water, that Young boy of Toronto was steadily forging toward the shore, stopping occasionally "to kick 'em out."

Although no woman finished, leaving the $15,000 prize unclaimed, it became known here today that Wrigley was planning another Catalina swim—this time for women only. Details have not yet been worked out, but it is thought it will be held in September, that a purse of $25,000 will be offered to the participants and that such famous swimmers as Gertrude Ederle and Mrs. Mille Corson will be invited to be contestants.

20 Players Are Used By Two Contenders; Final Count 61-24

Captain Jim Hamilton Leads Scorers With Eight Field Goals and Three Fouls; Visitors Get Two Goals in First Half; Reserves in Action.

WITH each school using enough men at various times for two complete teams apiece, 20 names appearing in the box score, Coach N. F. Lorah's High passers defeated Youngstown Chaney here Saturday night 61 to 24, the contest marking the initial appearance of the Steel City quint against the locals.

The engagement was practically a procession of field goals for the Blue and White teams, with every member of the first string outfit playing a superb brand of basketball to put the squad far out in front at the outset of the battle, and the reinforcements kept up the good work in subsequent stages.

And all but three of the 61 points made by the Lorah quint were "earned" points, field goals from scrimmage, only three fouls being registered by the school during the entire engagement out of nine trials, Captain Jimmy Hamilton doing the honors.

The dash with which the Blue and White five went after points at the beginning of the game completely swept the Youngstown agregation from its feet and the visitors found it difficult to regain their equilibrium in succeeding stages as the locals, first string and Reserves, dished up one of the fastest exhibitions they have put on to date.

Captain Hamilton, despite an injured knee, played a wonderful game in that first half, leading scorers of both teams for individual honors during the entire contest with eight field goals and three fouls for a total of 19 points, although he was out of the contest for a short time in the second period and at the start of the third. He and Todd were thrown together in a scrimmage under the basket and when he came out his injured knee apparently was paining him. In order to prevent further injury to the knee, Coach Lorah relieved Hamilton toward the end of the period. Hamilton had registered six field goals and then came back in the second half again to sink two more.

The Chaney quint was completely flabbergasted during the entire first quarter by the velocity and effectiveness of the East Liverpool attack. As a result the scoreboard showed a 21 to 1 tally at the end of the inaugural period.

Chaney then added five points while the Blue was making 10, sending the tally to 31-6 at the half.

The visitors developed their greatest offensive in the third quarter when they collected 11 points for a total of 17, while Lorah's crew was chalking up six, making the totals 37 to 17. The locals then topped off the night's performance with 24 more points in the final period with field goals dropping in from all angles.

Chaney displayed an innovation in the use of two teams, alternating at the quarters, and one was practically as good as the other. Hamilton, McKeever, English, Larkins and McConville started for the locals, with Bloor, Wildblood, Todd, Ankrim and Deidrick working into the game in the latter periods, every man on the squad scoring with the exception of Todd. Guard McConville ran Hamilton second for scoring honors in the first half, busketing the leather four times to Hamilton's six.

Guard Dick Larkins dropped in two in the first half and two in teh second and turned in a great floor game, he and McConville absolutely blanking the Chaney scorers in the first period and permitting only two field goals in the second. Heimie Deidrick, after playing a full game with the Reserves in the preliminary, came back to perform with the regulars in the second half and counted three double deckers.

Landis Tarred Tris And Ty, Not League, Declares Johnson

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Ban H. Johnson, president of the American League, broke a long silence today to say that he not only would attend the meeting of league officials set by Commissioner Landis for Jan. 24, but that he would prove to the public that Commissioner K. M. Landis, and not the American League, tarred Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker.

Johnson practically admitted he was the author of the published statement which quoted a "high American League official" as saying that "neither Cobb nor Speaker will ever again manage or play on an American League team."

Although Johnson reiterates that Cobb and Speaker will never return to the American League, almost in the same breath he pays Cobb one of the highest tributes ever paid a ball player. Johnson said:

"I don't believe Cobb ever played a dishonest game in his life. If that's the exoneration he seeks I gladly give it to him. But it is from Landis, Cobb should demand an explanation. The American League ousted Cobb, but it was Landis who broadcast the story of his mistakes."

Johnson said he would take the stand at the hearing next Monday and his testimony would prove that the American League acted to protect Cobb and Speaker, and that the commissioner himself is to blame for the cloud that hangs over their names.

Grange Eleven Beaten.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—"Red" Grange and his New York Yankees were still wondering what it was all about today after being handed a 39 to 6 defeat by "Brick" Mueller's Buccaneers here yesterday. Grange made one spectacular run of 35 yards on a return from the kickoff.

Imlay of the Buccaneers was the outstanding player of both teams. His runs and passes were responsible for three of the four touchdowns his team made.

Ordinance No. 3009

REGULATING AND LICENSING TAXICABS AND AUTOMOBILES KEPT FOR HIRE AND LIVERY PURPOSES IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio;

SECTION I. (Definitions). The Term "taxicab" shall mean and include all motor driven vehicles engaged in the business of carrying passengers for hire on the streets of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, except (1) motor busses operated on regular schedules and over regularly established routes.

The Term "taximeter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the rental charge or charge for hire of a taxicab is mechanically calculated either for distance travelled, or for waiting time, or both, and upon which, such charge will be indicated by means of figures.

The Term "mileage meter" shall mean and include any mechanical instrument or device by which the distance travelled by a taxicab is indicated or registered by means of figures.

SECTION II. (Owners License). Each taxicab in the City of East Liverpool shall be licensed and the owner thereof shall pay to the Mayor a license fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each taxicab, which license fee shall be in addition to the fee required to be paid on motor vehicles under the laws of the State of Ohio. All such licenses shall expire at midnight on the 31st of December of each year. When such license is taken out or issued after the 30th of June of any year, the fee shall be Five Dollars ($5.00). Upon the application of the owner of any taxicab already licensed, the Mayor may authorize the transfer of the license issued for such taxicab to another taxicab owned by the same person, firm or corporation making such application. The fee for making such transfer shall be fifty cents ($.50).

SECTION III. (Drivers Qualifications). No person shall be permitted to drive or operate a taxicab unless such person: (a) Be of the age of twenty-one (21) years or over, an American citizen and a bona fide resident of the County of Columbiana. (b) Be of sound physique, with good eyesight, and no bodily or mental infirmities which render him unfit for the safe operation of public motor vehicles. (c) Be clean in dress and person and not be addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors or drugs.

SECTION IV. (Soliciting Business). No driver of any taxicab, nor any other person white on the public streets or highways of the City or any other public place, shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle in any other way than in an ordinary tone of voice or by the display of a sign attached to his vehicle, such sign not to be more than eight (8) inches square in size and otherwise as herein provided, and no driver of any taxicab or any other person shall solicit patrons or passengers for such vehicle when more than five (5) feet away from his vehicle, and no such driver shall seek or solicit employment by repeatedly or persistently driving his vehicle to and fro from any theatre, hotel, railway station or other place of public ingress to or egress from such place or places.

SECTION V. (Liability Insurance). It shall be unlawful to operate a taxicab, or permit such to be operated, nor shall any license be issued for a taxicab until and unless the applicant for a license hereunder exhibits to and files with the Mayor a policy or certificate of liability insurance for each taxicab for which a license is sought. Such policy will be acceptable to and approved by the Mayor and shall be written by an insurance or liability company authorized to carry on business and to write such policies in the State of Ohio. Such policy shall indemnify the applicant in the sum of at least Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for injury to one person and Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for injury to more than one person, and One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for property damage in any one accident, through the operation of the taxicab of the applicant. The said policy shall further contain a clause obligating the surety company to give ten (10) days written notice before cancellation of the policy to the Mayor, the said license to expire upon the lapse or termination of the said policy of insurance, unless another policy is furnished by said applicant.

SECTION VI. (Inspection of taxicabs). It shall be the duty of the owner of any taxicab operated under the terms and provisions of this ordinance, to exhibit said taxicab to the Mayor for inspection within five (5 days) after receiving notice from the Mayor requesting the same. An inspector designated by the said Mayor shall thereupon inspect the said taxicab and determine whether the same is in repair and in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein. If, after such inspection the said inspector finds such taxicab to be out of repair and not in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein, he shall certify such fact to the Mayor and owner in writing, and it shall be unlawful for any person to operate such taxicab under the terms and provisions of this Ordinance after such certificate is filed with the Mayor and owner. After such taxicab shall have been repaired and the respects indicated by the said inspector in such certificate the said taxicab may again be exhibited to such inspector for further inspection. If, after inspection, the inspector shall find such taxicab to be in proper repair and in a fit condition to be operated with safety to the passengers therein, he shall so certify in writing, to the Mayor and to the owner and thereupon such taxicab may again be operated by the owner or driver under the terms and provisions of this Ordinance. The owner shall pay to the inspector a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) for each inspection and the proceeds arising from the collection of such fees shall be paid to the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

SECTION VII. (Taximeters and Mileage meters). Each taxicab licensed and operated on the streets of the City of East Liverpool shall be equipped with a taximeter, the dial of which shall be in a conspicuous place on said vehicle, and said taximeter shall at all times be kept in repair and shall, before any trip is started, be set at naught (0), so as to show the mileage basis. The dial of such taximeter shall be lighted from an electric light when the same is in use in the night season; or in lieu of a taximeter, each taxicab licensed and operated on the streets of the City of East Liverpool, shall be equipped with a mileage meter which shall indicate the distance travelled by said taxicab in miles or fractions thereof for any trip said taxicab makes for hire.

SECTION VIII. (Rates of Fare). The following maximum rates for taxicabs licensed and operated within the City of East Liverpool, are hereby established; For single passenger, for first one-third of a mile, thirty-five cents; for each additional one-third of a mile, ten cents; for each additional passenger, regardless of mileage, twenty cents; provided, for running time an hourly maximum rate of three dollars may be charged when the vehicle is hired by the hour, or, for waiting time, an hourly maximum rate of Two Dollars and fifty cents may be charged when the vehicle is hired by the hour. No extra charge shall be made for carrying the hand baggage of any passenger nor for the transportation of any child under the age of ten years when such child is accompanied by a parent or other person having charge of such child, and not more than two children. The rate shall be half fare for all children under ten years in excess of two.

For each four minutes of waiting time, ten cents. Waiting time shall include the time during which such taxicab or automobile kept for hire is not in motion, beginning with the arrival at the place to which it has been called or the time consumed while standing at the direction of the passenger; but no time charge shall be made for the time lost for inefficiency of the taxicab or motor vehicle or of its operator, or for time consumed by a premature response to a call.

The rates of fare charged by the driver of any taxicab shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the passengers' compartment of such vehicle; the schedule showing such rates of fare shall be printed in a type not smaller than ten point primer type.

SECTION IX. (Receipts to be given). SECTION XII. Shall not include nor apply to motor vehicles used exclusively as hearses or ambulances, or exclusively for service at weddings, christenings and funerals, nor motor vehicles leased or rented for private use without the service of a chauffeur or driver.

THREE DAY COLDS THREATEN LUNGS

A cough or cold that hangs on after the third day is a threat.

Do something! Don't wait until the cold has run its course—from your head to your throat—from throat to chest or bronchial tubes. Break up your cold before it settles in this "danger zone"; for inflammation spreads, and your bronchial tubes lead directly into your lungs.

Quickly and unfailingly Ayer's Cherry Pectoral goes straight to the seat of trouble. With the very first swallow you feel its comforting warmth. You feel its soothing, healing powers reaching deep down into your bronchial tubes. You feel it penetrating through and through the irritated membranes.

This healing medication, absorbed into the membranes themselves, breaks up the cold, stops the cough, brings prompt and lasting relief.

If you are catching cold; if you have a "head cold"; if your chest is tight; if you have a cough—even if bronchitis has developed—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at once!

Cherry Pectoral is pleasant, safe and dependable—for children and grown people. At all druggists—50c; twice as much, $1.00. 2a2c urged and offered inducements for a number of years to get out into the open and take their vacations where they may enjoy the natural beauties and wonders so lavishly afforded in this country. The Federal Government has set aside particularly suitable spots as national parks. The state park movement has also grown apace and everywhere has been the urge to preserve, wherever it appeared practicable, certain areas in a natural state.

In all of these parks, however, efforts have been made to meet the demands of city bred people who are not accustomed to living primitive lives. Excellent roads have been built throughout most of the parks so that the automobile tourist may motor in comfort. For those who enjoy nature, but must have their physical comforts and luxuries, there are modern hotels with all conveniences. Those who wish a more nearly back-to-nature vacation may engage log cabins, or may use their own camping outfits. While these parks are primarily established for the purpose of preserving the natural features they contain, the enjoyment of the traveling public has been taken into consideration.

The area recently set aside, however, will be for the scientist who is much more concerned with primitive nature than in whether he will be able to get hot water for shaving and cold water for drinking.

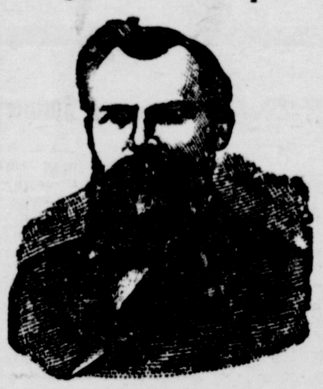

Since this is the first reservation of its kind in this country it is the object of great interest to scientists, not only in the United States but in other nations. The plan I said to have the endorsement of such foreign notables as Dr. A. W. Hill, director of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, England, and Dr. K. Domin director of the National Museum of Prague. Natural lovers of the future will no doubt be ever grateful for the foresight displayed by those responsible for this movement.
